PREFACE

The following are essays written with minor editing (less a few graphics and video embeds) during the time that history will call the “COVID19 Pandemic.” Most will not have a myriad of citations and links. Just the words and thoughts had at that moment in time.

Not all essays have a Covid emphasis. Rather, they touch on an array of topics such as politics, psychology, socio-economics, and America under attack since the 2020s began. The moments reflect what the author felt or intuitions about what was coming. Most all are validated as of this publication. A couple are short stories.

The main critiques range across the emotional and logical spectrum in the worry over a country’s future. Nefarious political forces have undermined the foundations of the U.S. Constitution with pandering, placating rhetoric and devious designs since at least the Progressive Era. From Wilson and FDR, to LBJ and Biden, the worst government overreaches domestically have destroyed state and one’s individual rights. With similar results, the LBJ, neocon Bush, and Obama administrations, generated long foreign wars that paid off Pentagon buddies and cronies while sacrificing lives of U.S. men and women and foreigners alike.<sup>1</sup> The American people did not want this – but the CIA-influencer media did. Lies and propaganda sold unnecessary wars and poisonous welfare alike to control the masses.

These United States have a great ability to repair themselves. Once the country realizes that Globalist forces (including its own once-treasured American companies) and Chinese warfare tactics have been operating without remorse on its very soul. The former, a stated plan to move to a one-world governance; the latter, a vengeful CCP that has dreams too of world domination. Such forces worked in concert in 2022 to divvy up the entirety of Westphalian System into nothingness.<sup>2</sup> Some may cheer this occurrence. Others might realize the new system is not going to benefit them or billions of others.

Inside the United States’ own borders, and embedded in the District of Columbia, lay subverted and corrupted politicians that have access to your tax dollars. Those dollars are being wasted on pet pork barrel projects; or worse: kickbacks to their own personal coffers while paying off MNC corporations as the politicians and lobbyists steal from the overly-taxed citizenry. This comes in concert with the Federal Reserve cracking from over a decade of quantitative easing as a 2022 recession came about even with massive prior injections of “money.”<sup>3</sup> Further subversion comes through educating that the United States philosophy is “bad” – something politicians like Barack Obama inserted often into the conversation – and needs to wind down its existence. The corporations are on board, hoping less prosperity for Americans as Bank of America was caught noting aloud.<sup>4</sup>

The jackals of Communism, and Fascistic Globalists alike, have infested mass media, social media discourse, and the educational, medical and political fields. They push lies, falsities, and produced “packaged” fear narratives to keep the common people in a state of flux. From the start of COVID19, China provided deadly images, flooding the zone with nightmarish scenarios and ginning up a “lockdown” strategy.<sup>5</sup> Their media minions, in particular, did their utmost to scare and blame shift to the non-complaint through labeling them as “evil” or “selfish.”

This echoed the 1930s march of Nazism and Communism, with the newest propaganda mediums of the day: radio and the movies. This, with the expertise of Edward Bernays, who was lauded by Goebbels and related to Sigmund Freud, generated rising media outrage machine in Germany. After the Nazi Socialists defeated the Communists, the Nazis sought vengeance on the Jewish population. (And then later, Hitler allied with Stalin’s Communists to split up Poland at the start of World War II on September 1, 1939. That deal lasted until June 22, 1941. What is little noted is the Americans, post-war, taking in top Nazi Scientists in Operation Paperclip as the CIA birth had those Fascist elements right at the outset.)

Social Media in the 21st century is a viral and malicious force on this planet as well. Social Media poisons society’s notions on free speech and personal rights. In a mere twenty years, the Internet, once a free and rather benign operation has been hijacked by Globalists. Social Media billionaires gather your data, packaging it up to the highest bidder, and then sell it to either a corporate or government entity, like the CCP uses expertly with TikTok. This juices their private, corporate profits while they rot out people’s brains and keep people amused, angry or anxious depending on what is needed as the next agenda is rolled out.

Such Fascism, the coordination of corporate power through government edicts, has escalated to extreme levels. When Biden’s Press Secretary speaks of the “Disinformation Dozen”<sup>6</sup> and the corporate media, owned by Forbes<sup>7</sup>, Bloomberg<sup>8</sup>, Gates<sup>9</sup>, Bezos<sup>10</sup> or China<sup>11</sup> chimes in similarly, what should that tell you about their motives? This leaves aside Facebook, Twitter, YouTube and others. The Section 230 tango where government paces the regulatory dance to the dutiful platforms’ advantages only as long as they enforce an executive branch’s whims, edicts and overreaches.

Such is not just a U.S. problem. Cuba, long communistic, just passed a misinformation law.<sup>12</sup>

And if that does not raise concerns, then there is reporting in the aftermath of Afghanistan’s amazing fall. The chaos and disarray, with $83 Billion<sup>13</sup> in armaments left behind, 13 soldiers dead,<sup>14</sup> just days after Biden made, yet again,<sup>15</sup> more empty promises. Now, Americans are in a “hostage” situation with “analytical silence” coming from these same media “platforms.”<sup>16</sup>

Meanwhile, the modern Chinese government, who rather likes those prior German plights, have aligned ideologically to those dark historical forces. From their outset in 1921, the Chinese Communists have sought power with the least amount of investment. Even during World War, the CCP only fought the Japanese when pro-Nationalist Chiang Kai-shek forces wavered. Our British allies were not a hugely helpful force here either as they preferred a divided China. Maybe foreseeing issues sown (by them) in the 1840s coming back at them if the Chinese attained power again.<sup>17</sup>

The CCP modern strategy of deploying asymmetric hybrid warfare, across the world, came about, in full, during the late 1990s. This after acknowledging their goals were to undermine the West, using their own free markets against them. The CCP have nearly two million spies or operatives in Western companies, governments, think tanks, and other key institutions.<sup>18</sup> Their connections to the West coast politicians (Feinstein, Swalwell) and old U.S. politicians (McConnell, Biden, Bush) just scratches the surface of their infiltration which includes medicine.

The CCP uses our open societies in the West, to subvert generation after generation, to hate and doubt themselves. The CCP has also sought the innovation and technology of the West, through theft of IP, and elite capture, through BGY<sup>19</sup>, to soundly manipulate conversations to their liking. They used our U.S. Agencies to sneak out technologies that we, the taxpayers, funded!<sup>20</sup> Their operatives slept with a Congressional member (Swalwell), who sits on an intelligence committee in 2021. An operative drove a U.S. Senator around for twenty years.<sup>21</sup>

The CCP's recent air incursions over Taiwan<sup>22</sup>, who established an independent country back in 1949, operated both democratically and successfully, are now under an invasion or violent threat from the mainland Chinese dictator in Xi Jinping increasingly. CCP propaganda has threatened Japan with nuclear annihilation if they dare intervene to Taiwan's defense. The CCP has put Australians in its crosshairs as well, even before the recent AUKUS submarine deal.<sup>23,24</sup> See how tolerant those Communists are!<sup>25</sup>

Now to see what comes next – is it a Sudetenland or a Poland moment? China too has recognized the Taliban as the government in Afghanistan along with Iran, Pakistan, and Turkey as of this writing. The CCP's Belt-n-Road Initiative over land depends on the use of Afghani soil to build a rail line and exploit precious metals from their lands. Plus, the use of Bagram Airbase that the United States built.<sup>26</sup> [And we thought the U.S. was merely after the resources?]

The United States' biggest errors come from President's past and their short-sighted policy blunders: decoupling of human rights from China's trade policy (Clinton); signing off on China's WTO entry and entry into two Middle East wars (Bush); fueling up the Arab Spring (Obama); and the handing over of Afghanistan to the Taliban (Biden).

Trump's issues are many, and varied, as well. He though didn't even have his top general's support. Gen. Mark Milley was signaling in phone calls to a Chinese General U.S. defense posture and making deals to provide prior warning of an imminent attack.<sup>27</sup> Quite a coup the CCP carried out on the entire World with the help of a few Globalist friends. Trump positions on COVID crisis, and support of, vaccinations, without the foggiest clue the people he was dealing with, can be noted in his signing of EO #13887 that gave 10 Federal Agencies, who despised him, enormous emergency powers during a health crisis.<sup>28</sup> This may be the largest of all errors – if, humanity does not figure out the underlying reasons for centralized control from the D.C. Agencies, Beijing's Xi, or even Davos, Switzerland own Fascist in Dr. Klaus Schwab. And lest we forget Royal interests are never far from these people as well, operating in the background.

The more sinister plot, one that has evolved over decades as well, is the Globalist Psychopaths that occupy the top rungs of a myriad of organizations. The United Nations is far from a uniting operation. Rather, it has operating as the cut out for the men and women that feel most of humanity is less valuable than themselves. And therefore, expendable and destroyable.

The UN works in concert with the World Economic Forum (WEF) and their founder: Klaus Schwab. Schwab has "prepared" several books that speak of a 4th Industrial Revolution and transhumanism.<sup>29</sup> His co-authors, like Satya Nadella, CEO of Microsoft (where Bill Gates was chairman until March 13, 2020), reflects their "vision." The vision included the 2016 line: "You will own nothing and be happy," that underscored a climate change hustle that entails $150 trillion of top-down, authoritarian Techno-feudalism to come over the next 30 years.<sup>30</sup>

This was stated prior to the Pandemic.

In July 2020, Schwab rolled out the "COVID-19: The Great Reset."<sup>31</sup> The 1-star reviews speak well enough to the "ideas" contained in this Problem-Reaction-Solution book.

Problem: COVID-19, Climate Change (CO2-Nitrogen hustle)

Reaction: Fear, Propaganda, Censorship, Lockdowns (to destroy middle-class wealth), Medical Tyranny with overt top-down restrictions for what medical treatment gets used. WHO emergency powers to subvert national sovereignty.

Climate tyranny is exemplified by Netherlands' plan to take farmers' lands.<sup>32</sup> As the 2nd leading exporting to the world, why are they getting harassed by WEF Prime Minister Mark Rutte?<sup>33,34</sup>

Solution: The Build Back Better slogan disguises the destruction of rights, liberties and further stealing of wealth (through BlackRock, Vanguard, State Street & Central Bank of all Central banks, the BIS) for a controlled collapse of The West. National Debt levels are over $300 trillion (USD); and the Global OTC derivatives markets (below) are inching back 2008 levels.<sup>35</sup> The Forex markets, second graph, are a larger concern. All values are in trillions.

As S. Lawrence stated on his 1-star review of Klaus's tome:

“[S]aying that 'capitalism is broken' is pretty disingenuous when you consider that banks and corporations are the ones who broke it in the first place.

Aren't we only 12 years removed from the 2008 financial crisis? And you think the people of America trust you to install 'global governance'? After our institutions have proved to be unworthy of our trust?”<sup>36</sup>

These players know you do not trust them. Their dark triad characteristics of narcissism, Machiavellianism and psychopathy combined with enormous wealth, cleverish intellect, and a propensity to sell their ideas to lesser sociopaths, make them a risk to anyone that stands in their way. They buy off and deploy politicians, and technocrats as well, to get their ideas through by coercion, and now, an increasing use of state of emergency and police powers.

See: Australia. Canada. Netherlands. And that list will grow.

Nevertheless, it is up to millions, if not billions, to finally see through these ruses. Identify the ones who did the damage and arrest the conspirers throughout this “pandemic” tied to an enhanced flu that was a bioweapon released for maximum impact and destabilizing benefit.

An Ethical Reset must be accomplished.

The COVID essays lay ahead.

APRIL 2020: 1984

“Those who would give up essential Liberty, to purchase a little temporary Safety, deserve neither Liberty nor Safety.” Sadly, we have a contingent in U.S. society that are more that eager to shame others to hand over liberty for their so-called safety. Never acknowledging once you cede, said authority, to “an elite few” they will gladly abuse that power over you, whenever it suits, and use your prior acquiesce as the stick to beat you with. Boundaries of individual rights must be kept.

The Calm Before the Next Storm

As the 2020 calendar turned, the U.S. government was embroiled in the impeachment of Donald J. Trump. For 2 weeks straight, we had bloviated speeches about the dastardly phone call and Trump’s administration investigating of Joe Biden’s Ukrainian dealings. Which was a quid pro quo deal – fire the prosecutor or you don’t get the money, you got six hours – that the propagandized media was glad to let be ignored, but our president wanted to know. Trump also wanted to know if Ukraine was actually using the foreign aid for their country and not to fund a hidden war, or payoff ruthless billionaires, or otherwise, exploitative of the U.S. taxpayer. Not that the media cared much at all about that stuff – it had its target: Donald Trump.

The U.S. House – those representatives of the 435 districts – decided to move the proceedings to the U.S. Senate, where a trial on the counts ended without reaching the impeachment number of 67 U.S. Senators in early February. Of course, rehashing what was going on, in January, will only seem to ignore the current “crisis” surrounding an invisible-to-the-naked-eye virus.

January 14, 2020, Nancy Pelosi announced the intention to send the articles of impeachment to the Senate. Meanwhile, the same day, the World Health Organization announced that “Preliminary investigations conducted by the Chinese authorities have found no clear evidence of human-to-human transmission of the novel #coronavirus (2019-nCoV) identified in #Wuhan, #China.” Such was the stage to occupy the President. (Wouldn’t you be? Be honest.)

The day of the State of the Union, CDC did not recommend facemasks. 6 weeks later, a different call being made all over.

In the intervening time, before his official acquittal, on February 5th, the highlights are as follows:

- Liu He, Vice Premier of China, signed phase one of a trade deal with U.S. on January 15th
- USMCA is ratified by U.S. Senate, 89-10, on January 16th
- Trump attends Davos World Economic Forum on January 21st. He returns the following day.
- Trump delivers remarks at anti-abortion March for Life, January 24th.
- Trump holds a bilateral meeting with Benjamin Netanyahu, Israel’s PM, January 27th.
- Trump officially signs USMCA, January 29th.
- Issues travel ban Nigeria, Myanmar, Eritrea, Kyrgyzstan, Sudan, and Tanzania on January 31st.
- Issues travel restrictions from China on February 2nd, Secretary of Health and Human Services declares coronavirus “poses a public health emergency.”
- State of the Union delivered February 4th.

Lastly, Trump fires the Vindman brothers and Gordon Sondland on February 7th. These were “key Ukrainian witnesses” according to Democrats’ arguments. (All ambassadors and military personnel serve at the pleasure of the President. Lest we forget that little bit of power he has as the Chief Executive. This isn’t employment law. You don’t get to keep your job in government because you snitched on your boss and likely obfuscated under oath.)

Economic and Pandemic Flu

79 days ago, as Trump gave the State of the Union, economic numbers were strong, and the country seemed well-positioned to continue that march. Unemployment down among those who desired work. Wages improving in middle America after decades of stagnation. Manufacturers exploring ways to come back home after being in China and other far-a-field locales. Economic optimism was at least generally shared, if begrudgingly so, by those prone to vote Democrat, rain or shine. One number popped up for this author: many more jobs available than people with the skills or desire to fill them.<sup>37</sup>

Seems quite coincidental that two hallmark trade agreements were also signed during this run up to the Corona virus, don’t you think? While the impeachment proceedings occupied mainstream media with a frenzied frothing to get rid of Trump, yet again, other invested parties could very well be executing (planning) a next crisis to keep Trump’s administration tied up and ineffective.

Hypothesis? Pure Speculation? Sure.

But didn't the media push the Russia hoax, and it slowly comes out in FOIA requests that the FBI et. al. were supporting Steele's disinformation to undercut their future boss as soon as he was officially elected? Does anyone think the FBI & State would have released it if Clinton won? (No. Because it would require actual evidentiary production to use it against Trump. The mere accusation is much more effective to undermine Trump. Caused him to respond – as in the removal of James Comey – which gave Rod Rosenstein the cover to appoint a special counsel.)

Why would their tactics change? To thwart Trump, he must appear: uncaring, evil, a do-nothing, corrupt, authoritarian, reckless, plus extremely stupid. The State Department, Democrats and the Lefty media hacks from the Alphabet-owned stations (CNN, ABC, CBC, MSNBC, and even FOX, at times) pushed every racist, homophobic, xenophobic stereotype imaginable. And to be clear: Trump played the game back to further their outrage.

- Shit-hole countries (Are they not? They come to the US for a reason. It is not to receive more of what they already got. And thus, why they break the law to enter. US has more justice for lawbreakers than any 3rd world crap-hole does. That however is changing...for citizens, in particular.)
- Champagne Socialists (Lebron James & Twitter Nazis) making everything said and set in the 1859 South.
- Squad Members crying about the USA – to which Trump said leave it then. Go back to Somali. Or words to that effect.

But the U.S. economy was the one thing that even these Deep State & Globalist asses couldn't pin him down on, yet. Their techniques – experts like Paul Krugman or an Austan Goolsbee – could make wild predictions of recession or say Obama deserved most of the credit. Even Obama chimed in to take credit in the middle February 2020, just before the Corona Pandemic hit media outlets as a news story, blowing up like a housing bubble.

It's only Trump's economy if it's bad. It's Obama's if it is good. And some tried to split the baby here too in reporting on it. Trump messages so loudly because the media is so negative on him. A media that did pretzel maneuvers to ignore Obama's worst sins (healthcare, due process, spying, foreign dealings, or an unauthorized war funded) while playing up all his cool credentials. Obama ostensibly was George W. Bush without the canisters to kick start a war promoted by a Pulitzer prize-winning media hack at The New York Times. So, Obama made do with what he had: a Bush recession based on Wall Street mortgage models that went to caca and John Q. Public's get-rich quick real estate forays.

When the flu hits yearly, evidently, the CDC runs its models, estimates based off sampling, and puts out information, until sometime later, it then reconciles the differences. Ho-hum. (As a forty something, I got through every pandemic that has propagated since 2002 without a serious case of the sniffles.)

Before, COVID19, 180,000 hospitalizations created about 10,000 deaths, by the CDC estimations.

The current World meter Information on Corona, as of April 23, 2020, shows about 180,000 worldwide deaths. In the United States, 49,845 deaths are “attributable” to corona diagnosis. One says attributable because of some clarifications by the CDC guidelines posted on the site:

“In accordance with new CDC guidelines:

New York: the numbers shown below include probable deaths (and, consequently, probable cases for the same number) as reported by New York City

Maryland: includes probable deaths, as reported by the Department of Health (Section: “COVID-19 Statistics in Maryland”)

Wyoming: includes probable cases, as reported by the Department of Health

Most state reports and dashboards (such as Texas, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, Missouri, etc.) lag behind or show incomplete data with respect to the data shown...”<sup>38</sup>

So, what does this tell us so far?

If you add the number reported as of January 25th (10,000) and the reported corona deaths (49, 845), this equals nearly 60,000 U.S. deaths. In 2017, 55,672 were attributed to influenza.

If Corona virus was as deadly as it has been made into – and let’s be clear again, it does exist and it finds immune-compromised and comorbidity people as its most targeted – then these numbers should not be on the same order of magnitude. Corona, even with the social distancing and masks (and even CNN’s Anderson Cooper says it is airborne via ventilation!), would be orders of magnitude worse around the world by now.

Moreover, sadly, people die every day. The list above shows the orders of highest death causes. My closest 3 relatives (mom and her parents) were all cancer deaths. Such deaths are personal. We grieve them and know them from our closeness. As much as I can feel for those impacted, I also concede that a man in his late 70s in New Jersey who had COPD and caught this strain of COVID19 (an enhanced seasonal flu) has less meaning to me. Their families must grieve privately, and know, or should, that we all face death at some juncture.

Doctors and nurses have done what they can do. Some have worked out treatments that are promising and should be deployed as much as they can under such a unique situation.

Here is a comparison done in early March of “named” flu and their impacts. Notice the typical flu season takes 400,000 per year. A 1957-8 flu was nearly 4x a normal year. So far, Corona is listed at 190,000 deaths. Again, orders of magnitude – Spanish flu was considered causative of minimal 17,000,000 and up to 50,000,000 with a world population of 1.8 billion in 1920. Whereas, in 2020, you have a very high likelihood of 300,000 deaths with the Coronavirus versus a 7.8 billion total world population. Orders of magnitude less lethal than Spanish flu. 1/4 the population available and nearly 1/50th to 1/160th of total deaths, or 200 to 640 times less than Spanish flu.<sup>39</sup>

Since we can't predict its ongoing trek, we can only go on living and let doctors do their best to treat it as they learn from this experience. The human interaction must continue or else more will die of hunger and stress-related deprivation than a virus they can't see or do much about it. (Testing was error-riddled with false positives and negatives.)

Political Pandemic?

Hypothesis: Let's say it is being used to exploit fear for political purposes. It conditions people through propagandizing to their basest natural instincts and activating their amygdala: fear of that which they can't see, nor understand without specialized knowledge. Medicine is hard, if you know what you are doing, impossible if you have a Harvard dropout selling vaccines with his billion-dollar foundation ready to turn up the serum production and pump them into your arms. Captain America you will not become.

Many people prefer to not take responsibility for their lives. Some spend a lifetime actively avoiding it at all costs. It often explains how easily they can let an agency, a foundation, a state or federal entity decide all sorts of rules, regulations and policy without any worry, until later. Then, the blame and outrage is neatly shifted and assigned to whomever is "in charge," say Trump, because: "the buck stops there."

Well, how about the thirty or forty years of policies allowed to, via vote or obliviousness, to a long-standing tradition of stripping away your individual rights? Did Trump take over without people undermining anything he did just to spite him? Did Joe Biden, Nancy Pelosi or Chuck Schumer just get to Washington in 2016? Did Lindsay Graham? Before his death, did John McCain just happen into Congress in 2000? Did Hillary Clinton not resurrect over and over again?

And where is your individual accountability to research your own information and put perspective in place of media-induced anxiety? Too lazy? Well, maybe you should not vote, or not complain too much when these problems keep happening with governance done by Agencies or legislators that are bought off by other entities? Council on Foreign Relations ring any bells?<sup>40</sup>

Now: add politicians, think tanks, and international connections and this becomes quite a web!

It's not just at the federal level, the elected officials, it's the agencies, the local politicians that run big metro areas. It's their media buddies and brothers working at them. It's their former roommates at Ivy League schools doing pump and dumps on Wall Street or fly-by-night startups.

These power players cavort around with big tech, academia, and think tanks. Those places get big money and kick it back. All these schmucks do is make you chase them like a cat does a laser pointer in hopes you'll give up. Because those smart enough to put the cartels together, and have that kind of time, might as well work for these corrupt jokers! They are that powerful.

(Side note: Ukraine billionaire created 50+ shell corporations, by some reports (Beck), to funnel U.S. money through Cyprus-Latvia bad banks. It's like Enron times 100 with these parasites operating to divvy up the country by running divisive narratives and playing pin-the-tale-on-Trump. Trump has his flaws, but most of all, he has his enemies. That tells you more about a person too. You are the nature and power of the enemies you make.)

The media empire routinely promotes this Bernays fiction and seizes on it as a golden opportunity to derail Trump and even prop up the half-dementia Joe Biden. The same ol' Joe Biden, so inept, that he somehow won primaries against a field of mediocre political hacks that could at least say a sentence without sounding like a blender was being ran full blast, unlike Joe's meanderings. Joe gets a nomination without a full slate of primaries. Everyone drops out in unison. Bernie Sanders goes for another condo somewhere nice.

Then, all the pandemic models rear up as a measure to stoke more fear. Millions to die. Stay tuned.

The reason for this: if the aligned forces against Trump get him out of office, these two things could happen:

The Media will laud praise on Joe's VP, assuredly a woman. This will be done as Joe has the shortest presidential stay in U.S. history due to his sudden diagnosis of end stage dementia. Thereafter, new executive orders will be issues across the country on a host of lefty wish lists. Media will find more creative ways to investigate Trump and courts will be expected to prosecute him for any allegations found.

The Corona or another virus will be used as cover to do those executive orders. Mandated and rewarded to enforce them. Every policy Trump did will be undone. Destruction of the border wall. China trade resumed at a quickening pace. Climate accords foisted upon U.S. based manufacturing. Welfare state increased for those who vote left. Due process eroded further. A new task force formed with overarching powers to silence any individual dissent. Bill Gates gets his vaccine. Globalists pleased.

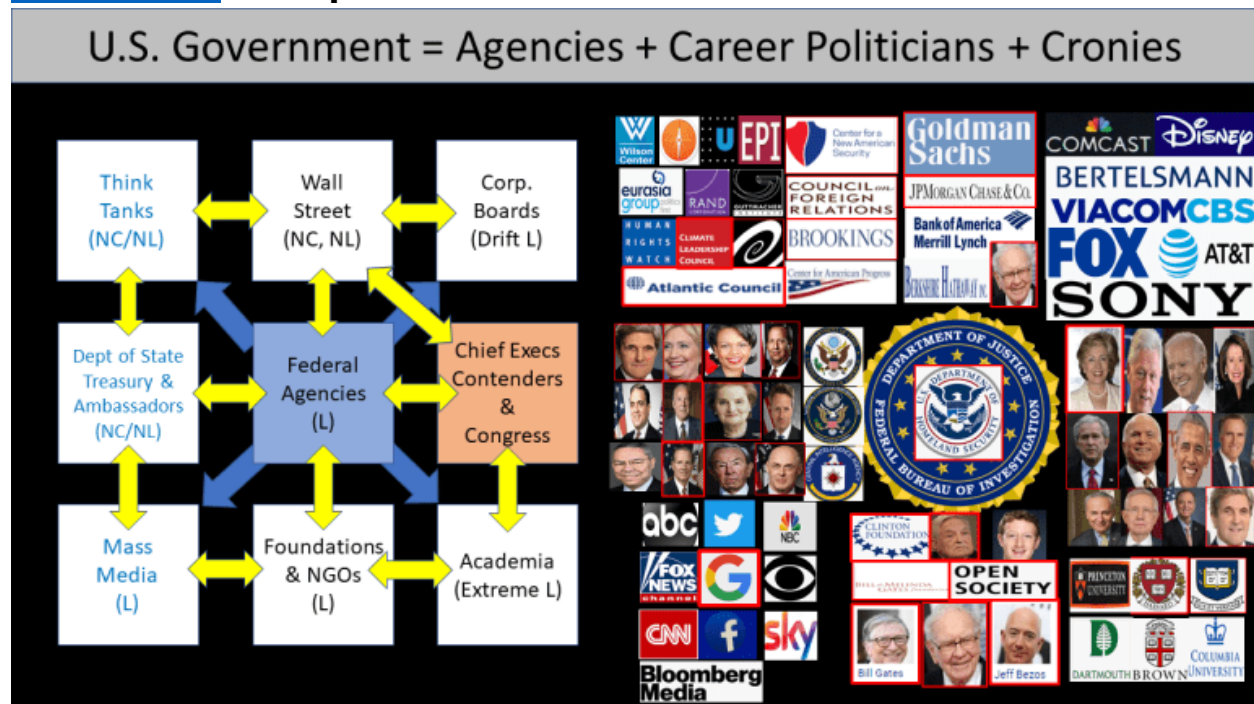

The test case has been initiated.

Let's just see how pliant and easily manipulated people are come this fall.

If people let them do this again, U.S.A. might not be around as a unified country much longer.

JUNE 2020: Deep State

The recent riots and destruction of American cities can be seen through many prisms. The popular one is racism. Pushed by the propaganda of media that feed a narrative built over many decades and catering to a base of voters that like nothing more than to blame all the problems they have on a “system.”

So, let’s explore the system. Not the system they see as causative; but rather, the one they voted in – elected officials at the federal, state and local levels. The District of Columbia is pronounced with a legacy of holdover officials and calcified government operations. The leadership of each major party, have ping-ponged power back and forth forever. But discreetly, they have put on a show too. The Pelosis, Schumers, Romneys, Grahams, McConnells of the Washington legislative bodies place their own interests ahead of the footing of actual partisanship. They give the marching orders to their lesser legislators.

The battles exist; but really, do they? In a quarter century or more in charge, why are the same problems still around? Or much worse? Blaming the other side, breaks down, when at clear instances one side had the Congress, Presidency and the Courts aligned well enough to do their policies.

Of the two, Democrats are morally corrupt and mentally deficient. They create problems, offer that it needs, “more money” and then siphon off the biggest portion to create “administrative jobs” or “oversight” that is populated with their dutiful cronies from Academia to Wall Street. They use “experts”, now overtly leftist, to push a Centralized State with Crony Capitalism naked to anyone who watches who funds them. (FANG is not just a stock acronym; it’s the penetration of Democrats into the technology and data world, exploited (and monetized) to do citizen's harm. But sold as, "We got to get the Nazis!")

Republicans are hypocrites when it comes to any battle. Any battle. If it is a foreign conflict, then monies will be readily spent, whatever the price tag becomes, and their corporate defense buddies will waste those dollars, while people, citizens and foreigners alike, lose their lives in the battles. The U.S. never "win anything" in these wars. No territory, no surrender, no new allies either. We just fight them "over there," so we don't have to fight them "over here." Well, we are fighting them over here...now.

In a battle, more domestic, they will run from a slur or smear faster than Forrest Gump ever could. Caving into the petulant emotional terrorists that are Democrats when anyone says "no" to their hair-brained, one-size-fits-all, centralized NEW system. Neoconservatives placate their bases with "law and order" mantras and "sound fiscal policy" but they've never met a discouraging word that makes Gumbly seem inflexible by comparison.

Democrats push the wrong ideas, but are experts at optics, foisting females up in front to stave off most criticisms. They got the media stooges running cover and disinformation 24-7.

Republicans, haven't learn a single, new foreign policy trick in 60 years. They can hold all the righteous and moral ideals, but they'll leave a fight if their "honor" or "character" gets questioned. Republicans' optics are their fault. Their failures to build a technology platform in the 1990s to rival the Silicon Valley one, regarding media, shows how short-sighted they were. (They got stuck in FOX world.)

They both spend taxes and waste opportunities to improve our lives. They team up on huge pork barrel spending in times of "crisis" (where Democrats dump every dumb ass idea in human existence into the bill). The Republicans will cave for expediency's sake, but will allow in, at least one dumb ass idea. Because "the crisis" will cost the Republican's power if they piss off their electorate, even though they haven't run a major metropolitan area since before Johnson, in most cases.

Meanwhile, the electorate created this mess by letting the same folks do the same bullshit, while never thinking, or designing, a 3rd route; and thus, removing these cardboard cutouts of adults from our political lives. But instead, donate to each of them, and canvas for them, because: "the other side is evil."

DC: Ain't Like You, America

Then, at night, one can readily imagine D.C. staffers, their lesser members, going out in D.C. and taking their paychecks (our taxes) and spending that freely.

Little mentioned fact: D.C. has the highest per capita GDP in the United States at $200,241.87, from 702,455 citizens in 2018. In the 2016 election 282,830 voted for Hillary Clinton while only 12,723 voted for Trump. A ratio of over 22 to 1. Maryland too was soundly for Clinton and is home to the “Beltway Insiders.” Per capita counts all citizens, including children. So, an average salary in D.C. hits about $250,000, to ballpark it here.

Because the GDP is so high, more than double New York State ($85K), one living there thinks:

1. They matter, A LOT
2. They are contributing to society MORE than taking from it
3. They likely feel it’s a HARSHIP (yes, cost of living is high there) to do their jobs
4. That underappreciation comes through in their LOBBYING, LEGISLATION and LEGAL EDICTS
5. A Myopic view, even if they actually CARE about their jobs

If one thinks it is only Congress, and their staff, oh brother, let me sell you Brooklyn for wampum.

The Agencies have long supplanted most of the decision-making that Congress was held to do. Congress created these Agencies, they fund them, using hearings to address whatever the Directors, Secretaries and Under-Secretaries share with them. These department heads are appointed by a President – the FBI Director is a 10-year job, the Federal Reserve is a 14-year stint, Supreme Court, life – but the Chief Executive, may rarely have the pulse of that Department, and is long gone, if they serve just 4 years.

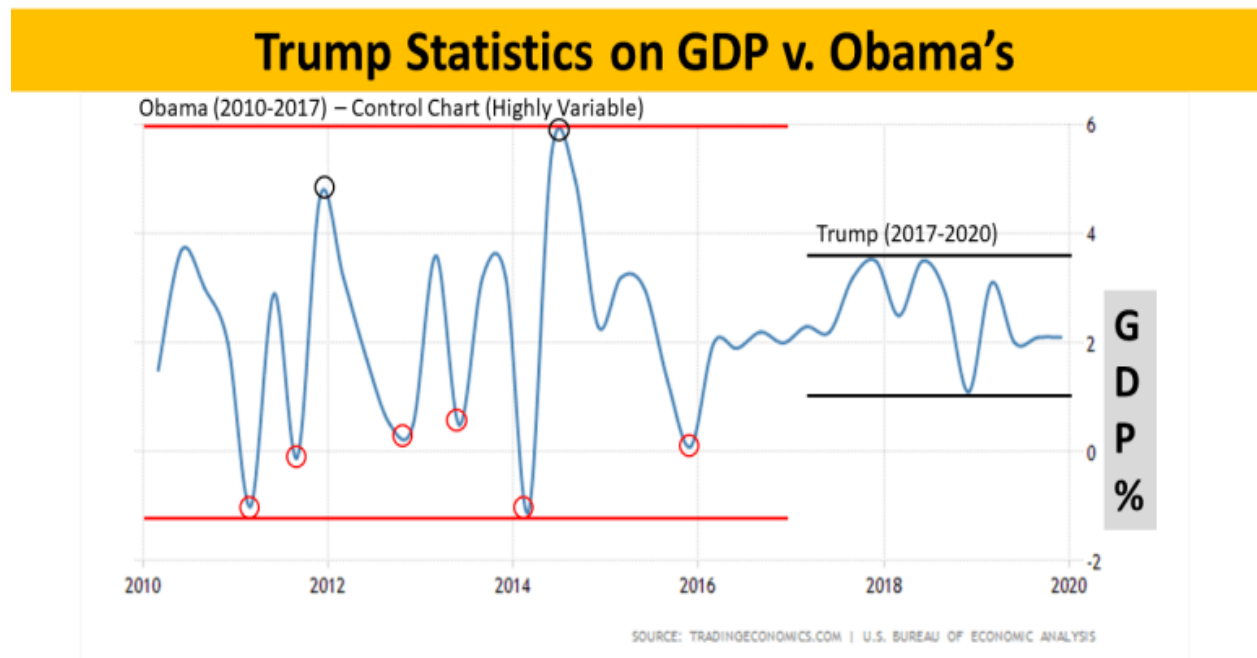

(Note: The Judicial Branch is really the honey pot of control, assuming a federal judge really lets us know what they think on a matter. So, lefties smear any candidate that doesn’t support their ideology 100%. And no, the President shouldn’t have control over them. This shows the diffusion of power, in operation – but now, non-elected officials are running the show.)

Why does it matter? Well, a President cannot effectively change policy with holdovers. Trump has shown the depth of the swamp. It includes Generals, DOJ officials, Agency heads, their sub-department heads, former POTUSes, even, rattle their teeth at him. They critique him as incompetent; but they were there long before he was. They were pushing the policies of the last 40 plus years. They got us into debt to the tune of $20 Trillion dollars (and Trump has added to that).

People call Trump a “dictator” out of sheer mind-boggling ignorance or contemptible propaganda to rid themselves of the first D.C. outsider since Eisenhower (U.S. General – not a politician; Reagan was a governor before President). And to be sure, Trump is not an expert on all the wonderful little topics he Tweets about. He picks fights. He puts people on the defensive as he attacks their character, rightly or wrongly.

Wonder why? Because he knows they are full of it. He’s full of it too – but he was elected by the rules of the U.S. Constitution.

And to his credit, we didn’t start a new war somewhere abroad. He lowered taxes. He attempted to lessen the burden on convicted persons, only to have that backfire (one likely must know criminals do not always reform) with the current crisis de jure. The summer and fall will see more “rolling crises.”

If one were to analyze this from a control standpoint, Obama (and this left aside 2009) had serious fluctuations that hampered any positivity of his stewardship. Well into his 2nd term, the boat was not stabilizing, until right before the election...Hmmm?

The things that BOTHER people about Trump are rooted in him wanting to tear down their power structures, expose their misdeeds, and get them “doing something right” for Americans.

The BOTHERED people, here, are the ONES that MATTER. They have shown their faces on TV, social media, and in print.

The psychological operation to discredit, smear, sabotage, vilify, demonize and destroy Trump, as a person, means: HE IS A BIG PROBLEM for them. Who, pray tell, had the most to lose? Well, she's been in Washington for well over a quarter century, and has a back story a mile long, in a trailer park, with a dollar bill dragged along in front of her.

“The System” people need to fix starts with leadership and appointments inside the Beltway. Until We, the People, fix that, the country will be lost to a mind-boggling array of deceit, corruption, and plots to screw over the populace for, “their own good.”

AND: If one can see it there, one knows the state and local officials, who receive federal funding, are likely, even more corrupted. Going state by state, city by city, is a book-long adventure.

(Edit 6/22/2020: This person did an analysis on Democrats in power for most major cities in the US. The data speaks for itself. And the recent destruction of civic monuments, downtown areas, businesses, and calls to defund the police, while local Democrats & D.C. Republicans, idle by, is a trap to get Trump to overreach on Federal authority. Yet, how long can one stand by.)

OCTOBER 2020: Halloween Surprise

If you've been distracted by the media, or disinformed, as the cool media people on the dole like to say now, one understands. 2020 has been a cascade of revelations, deep, dark, and disturbing. It's nearly Halloween. The Boo! keeps on coming.

Hunter Biden was chief bag man for a host of schemes. Peddling Joe Biden's name – and making bank – while the opposites (China, Ukraine, a few other countries, it appears) were leveraging it for influence. Seems insurance policies were set up, namely, Hunter's sexual and drug proclivities, for leveraging Joe Biden for favors. Imagine a U.S. President that will dance to whatever tune you cue up because the disgrace and shame brought to the United States would rock the world. Joe though would not be alone. Presidents Clinton and George W Bush are surely on that list. Obama – he was a good boy? – well, I leave it to further investigations into all the Uranium One, Ukraine and Iranian efforts to settle that.

What about Trump! I hear every Leftist from the Starbucks generation scream. He of the "Muh China" business in 2012! Or 2017!

Sure, The New York Times rehashed his one deal for a licensing and marketing development because it had a Chinese bank account. Billionaires have accounts all over – especially if they are internationally-minded. Ireland is a tax haven. Apple uses it. Most of BIG TECH does too. This is called tax avoidance.

“And it turns out that China is one of only three foreign nations — the others are Britain and Ireland — where Mr. Trump maintains a bank account, according to an analysis of the president’s tax records, which were obtained by The New York Times. The foreign accounts do not show up on Mr. Trump’s public financial disclosures, where he must list personal assets, because they are held under corporate names. The identities of the financial institutions are not clear.

To further continue:

“The Chinese account is controlled by Trump International Hotels Management L.L.C., which the tax records show paid $188,561 in taxes in China while pursuing licensing deals there from 2013 to 2015. The tax records do not include details on how much money may have passed through the overseas accounts, though the Internal Revenue Service does require filers to report the portion of their income derived from other countries.”<sup>41</sup>

FROM THE NEW YORK TIMES: TRUMP RECORDS SHED NEW LIGHT ON CHINESE BUSINESS PURSUITS (OCTOBER 20, 2020)

Such Trump deals were legal on their face. Trump was not holding a public office. His assets can be used, or vacated, or garner returns whenever that was sought. The Times didn’t note illegal activities at this Trump business either. And taxation is more complicated in foreign locations than this article delved into. And this is a non-issue.

This while in the exact same article, they alluded to Biden’s dealings too:

Mr. Trump has also sought to tar his opponent with overblown or unsubstantiated assertions about Hunter Biden’s business dealings there while his father was in office. “He’s like a vacuum cleaner — he follows his father around collecting,” Mr. Trump said recently, referring to Mr. Biden’s son. “What a disgrace. It’s a crime family.” In a misleading claim amplified by surrogates like his son Donald Trump Jr. and his lawyer Rudolph W. Giuliani, the president has said the younger Mr. Biden “walked out of China” with $1.5 billion after accompanying his father on an official trip in 2013.

FROM THE NEW YORK TIMES: TRUMP RECORDS SHED NEW LIGHT ON CHINESE BUSINESS PURSUITS (OCTOBER 20, 2020)

Hunter’s Partner

The above has been corroborated by Tony Bobulinski, a US Naval Officer and Veteran. He stated from a tweet \(below\):

This veteran stated he is not a political surrogate, and obviously, he worked with Hunter. So why did this all get dropped now? Obviously, the election. Obviously, the fact the FBI sat on information for longer than a baby treks from a clump of cells, Democrats, to a birth to make comfortable, as VA Governor once said, means they didn't want you, the voter, knowing what Presidential candidate Joe Biden was coordinating for years while in office.

He was the guy that got Victor Shokin fired within 6 hours. He was the guy that was the point guy in Ukraine where his progeny landed on Burisma's board. He was the guy who did fly to China as a Vice President and got deals that benefited his son. He was the BIG GUY!

back and gotten paid millions of dollars by the Chinese, even though they told me they hadn't and wouldn't do that to their partners.

I would ask the Biden family to address the American people and outline the facts so I can go back to being irrelevant — and so I am not put in a position to have to answer those questions for them.

I don't have a political ax to grind; I just saw behind the Biden curtain and I grew concerned with what I saw. The Biden family aggressively leveraged the Biden family name to make millions of dollars from foreign entities even though some were from communist controlled China.

God Bless America!!!!

Lefties worrying about a 6-figure tax bill and 8-figure payout to a billionaire prior to becoming President versus a VP getting a 10-figure deal in China, and 8-figure payouts to his son, who doesn't have the resume needed to do that on his own merit. Wow. If one can't figure out this is corruption, without the sorted sexual stuff, one is blind on purpose.

The Mueller Report and all the investigations the Democrats have done were mere theatre for all the dealings they themselves were into. The dealings that the world knew about months and many years ago. The dealings the Media has been covering up because they are complicit. Some were even in the #HunterBidenEmails.

This explains the Democrats radicalization, the lockdowns, the hijacking of “normal life”, the censorship and a host of peculiar responses since last year. The daily drumbeat is a psychological diversion tactic. To keep prying eyes off deep dark secrets.

Positions like court packing, destroying the electoral college, DC as a State (the Deep State home) all make sense to keep people away from the crimes. (These matter too – but are a diversion tactic, for now.) An article posted by Five Thirty-Eight today (Oct 22) brought up an old name: Saikat Chakrabarti, Rep. Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez’s former chief of staff. He left in August 2019 under an ethics investigation.<sup>42</sup>

What happen to that investigation?

One could conjecture here, and that is being done, by the way here, that Jeffrey Epstein might have triggered problems on multiple fronts. This, along with Trump’s call to Ukraine’s new president, mentioning CrowdStrike and Biden, had far-reaching implications. One believes these persons in office create constant schemes to both enrich themselves while also avoid all investigation or deep looks into their zero accomplishments. The Democrats spent the last four years blocking, impeaching, investigating and smearing Donald Trump. Creating campaigns to destroy a guy they once put on their TV as an attraction (NBC) and shouted out in the 1990s: see Die Hard with A Vengeance.

This election debate tonight could be a thriller like the movie above. As the lead up has been misdirection, a plot of chasing the bad guys across international borders, with Presidential name drops, while the BIG BAD GUYS steal gold using the cover of terrorist threat of hurting school children, in the movie, to distract. Well, this echoed in the email drops against Hunter.

Only, this time, it is REAL. The fate of the United States hangs in the balance. The revelation to the U.S. about Joe Biden and his dealings MUST be done tonight.

NOVEMBER 2020: Globalist Utopia

If 2020 has taught us anything, the Experts are always right. Right? Significantly, and to the nature of this ongoing experiment, is the control of the masses. At its closest point, it's the law enforcement official, the police that are needed. Their duties were trained into and required of them by their civilian political handlers, who have the might of armed forces, to make any single man, or woman, a slave unto the will or whims of another. The Rule of Law can be a cohesive force – against the criminal(s) – or a destructive force, when wielded against Society.

Those whims of another, constitute what a Globalist is, full stop. These are the hands behind the politicians, who themselves are onboarded, to give the marching orders of these oft shadowy figures down to the masses. These Globalists are the corporate elites (Gates, Musks, Cooks, Bezos, Bloomborgs, et. al.) that are tied, financially and spiritually, to the old, time-worn impulses to take humanity in directions based on an obsessive ideology of whatever stripe. But that stripe will ALWAYS include one fundamental aspect: the obsessive control of all others. This current flavor is: Techno-communism with a dose of Transhumanism as its “selling” or pitch point.

Like all ideologies, it has founding documents, its manifestos and white papers. World Economic Forum Founder Klaus Schwab has laid out his entire plan, or at least the living part of it. There isn't much debate – is there ever? – about who benefits, who checks the power of those blessed to have made “the right connections”, or who decides when, or where, this plan is thoroughly mad scientist based, and should be aborted, without debate.

Some here will say: “But you aren't engaging with the ideas Dr. Schwab has put forth?”

Davos Manifesto 2020: The Universal Purpose of a Company in the Fourth Industrial Revolution

A general view shows the mountain resort of Davos, Switzerland, January 25, 2019. Image: REUTERS/Arnd Wiegmann

True. I have disengaged with the idea of controlling my fellow man. The fanatical desires to strip him of his property, restrict his Civil Liberties (or at least have him ask permission to use them), prior to their usage. The embedding of tracking technology via a vaccine, or a bracelet or a cellphone, connecting him to a centralized system, to monitor his every heart beat and utterance, or even, thought.

Think that is conspiratorial? Dive into Klaus's thoughts. Or the media tours of Gates since the inception of this COVID-19 "plandemic." Or the Quantas CEO, Allan Joyce, requiring certificates of vaccines to fly internationally. There isn't enough space here to talk to all the indicators.

The corporate free passes during COVID to operate, as usual, while anyone with a mom and pop, or just too "risky" were required to close, go on the meager government dole, and become, once again, the working poor. This is due to those experts insistence that this was "a Spanish Flu" level pandemic. Then, ignoring all the science, and scientists, engineers, and rational folks, to the treatments that were easily at hand, and the inconvenient facts that modern societies have not shut down entirely for flus before. This FLU was no different from others. In brief, its benign compared to 1968-9 or 1957-8.

But it was NEVER about the China-sourced flu. Or whatever manipulations lay towards the benefits of causing WORLDWIDE chaos. Or as the Eastern bent philosophers noted, or political hack Rahm Emanuel butchered up: from CHAOS comes OPPORTUNITY. That was the goal: distraction from the Globalists greater plan. And covering up other misdeeds that were coming too quickly to light.

The worldwide media ownership, in terms of reach and conditioning of their plebes, has been instrumental to this frog-like boiling of human rights. The legacy & social media runs a 24-7 disinformation campaign against the World. These hacks refuse to engage with actual news, spin monstrous lies, create mockingbird narratives and parrot talking points so transparent that only the most sheepish person could swallow any of them whole.

Such sheep exist in the millions and billions. That's enough. One does not need to fool the masses all the time. Just enough of the time to keep them from revolting against the messaging fed to them like a meal. It's hard to convince someone they've been took. Just ask them.

The Social Media platforms are even more down to censor us all into compliance. Since the mid-2000s, as Facebook, Twitter, Instagram or YouTube took those eyeballs off the LEGACY media boxes, they too were bought up by the Soroses, the World Economic Forums, and Government (CIA: Allen & Co.) arms for gathering up all that BIG DATA. The Internet of Things (IOT), a huge part of Klaus's push, is just entryism to get you to provide some fundamental data (location, age, usage patterns) before they turn on the deep dives (5G push).

Endgame for Globalists

If you haven't heard, the Climate Change is really a concern for these Globalists. From my own working manuscript on 2020:

The messaging from a key link to Gates, Blair and the New World Order gang. "Reset", "Adapting to a New Normal", and "Climate Change" as an "Existential Threat" are all code for what forces lay behind this current pandemic. Notice the 130 million additional people that will face acute food insecurity.

But why is that? The blame shift tactic is being created because lockdowns and disruptions to all supply chains were tied to China's responses. Their lack of transparency on the lethality of the virus hampered us all. Because if they had been more transparent, worldwide suffering would not reach 100+ million.

Trump was also undoing their long-term plans, or stalling them, like the Paris Climate Accords withdrawal. Trump foiled that piece of the Globalist march to various iterations of a one-world subservience to the UN, EU, and their favorite country: China. The bad actor, from the so-called, "CO2 emissions must be stopped, or the Earth will plummet into chaos", is, in fact, China again. Offshoring jobs to them, through the WTO entry, assured ineffective management of the very thing the climate alarmists spent their intellectual capital in promoting as lethal to everyone, including Gates.

The Climate Leadership Council is keenly focused on this issue. And it brought together a who's who of business on its website (archived). It soft launched in May of 2016 with the assured hopes that Hillary Clinton would happily give them the best policy conditions to succeed. Run by Ted Halstead, a Harvard graduate, and four-time think tank founder, according to his Wikipedia page, he is decidedly, a globalist. The World Economic Forum listed him as a Young Global Leader at age 47. (Note: Ted DIED this summer from a fall during a climb. Funny that.)

The Forum for Young Global Leaders program seems the Golden Ticket to Klaus's Chocolate Factory of well-conditioned and morally-flexible drones that populate your current governments, businesses, science labs, universities and legal structures. Ones that no doubt believe their programming, the fantasies of human evolving to be almost, God-like, in terms of control and harnessing humanity's most decrepit impulses. Or some such marketing nonsense that probably they half-swallow, then regret it, but have zero choice. (Compromised by their misdeeds?)

Schwab's books delve deep into transhumanism. (A topic Jeffrey Epstein was deeply involved with at Harvard and through his "philanthropic activities.")

Schwab's detailing of it comes through vividly from his book Shaping the Future of the Fourth Industrial Revolution (37):

"Fourth Industrial Revolution technologies will not stop at becoming part of the physical world around us—they will become part of us. Indeed, some of us already feel that our smartphones have become an extension of ourselves. Today's external devices—from wearable computers to virtual reality headsets—will almost certainly become implantable in our bodies and brains. Exoskeletons and prosthetics will increase our physical power, while advances in neurotechnology enhance our cognitive abilities. We will become better able to manipulate our own genes, and those of our children. These developments raise profound questions: Where do we draw the line between human and machine? What does it mean to be human?"

If Klaus has anything to say about it, probably as an underclass in society. As the motivations are being sought to design, or "reimagine" or "reset" humans and their DNA for better uses. But not without the inevitable conflicts as Klaus professorially puts it here (51):

"This gives rise to an inequality that goes beyond the societal one described earlier. This ontological inequality will separate those who adapt from those who resist—the material winners and losers in all senses of the words. The winners may even benefit from some form of radical human improvement generated by certain segments of the fourth industrial revolution (such as genetic engineering) from which the losers will be deprived. This risks creating class conflicts and other clashes unlike anything we have seen before."

Winter Oak Blog did an excellent break down on all this.<sup>43</sup> But I digressed here.

The Equation (CO<sub>2</sub> = P x S x E x C) was from a Bill Gates Ted Talk. Of all those things, People, are the quickest, or most significant, to reduce. Gates, this summer wrote a treatise at his Gates Notes, titled, "COVID-19 is awful. Climate change could be worse."

Here's a snippet:

"You may have seen projections that, because economic activity has slowed down so much, the world will emit fewer greenhouse gases this year than last year. Although these projections are certainly true, their importance for the fight against climate change has been overstated.

Analysts disagree about how much emissions will go down this year, but the International Energy Agency puts the reduction around 8 percent. In real terms, that means we will release the equivalent of around 47 billion tons of carbon, instead of 51 billion.

That's a meaningful reduction, and we would be in great shape if we could continue that rate of decrease every year. Unfortunately, we can't.

Consider what it's taking to achieve this 8 percent reduction. More than 600,000 people have died, and tens of millions are out of work. This April, car traffic was half what it was in April 2019. For months, air traffic virtually came to a halt.

What's remarkable is not how much emissions will go down because of the pandemic, but how little."

Remarkable. It's a problem-solving session for Gates. How do we make human beings have less carbon footprint, to satisfy these Globalists ELITE?

I think you can figure out how that comes about. Just do the math. What are the ways that are known to achieve that? Disease, Famine, War and Conquest.

This is the Globalist game plan.

More for them, and less of us.

JANUARY 2021: American Greatness Response

(American Greatness article and original link)

Whatever transparency is provided, and much appreciated, it will not stop the ruination of this nation. Values are indeed gone. There is no opposing force to Leftism. They are actively decimating their opponents in Congress, and labeling ordinary concerned citizens, “insurgents.”

Unlike our Congress, or the Agencies (we forget are REALLY the toxic ooze that bleed us dry), many Americans (or myself, at least) understand what they have destroyed year after year. I love my country. I’ve made many mistakes in life, but I never wished the amount of failure as these morally bankrupt people do onto tens if not hundreds of millions through their idiocy done on purpose.

I could mention plenty of why – the root cause of countless trillion-dollar mistakes that got us here.

- War on Drugs
- War on Violence
- War on Terrorism
- War on Poverty
- War on COVID
- War on Climate Change
- War on Racism or White Supremacy

The overriding theme, the nugget that gets rehashed, repackaged, and results in these problems: War. There is a desire to catastrophize everything. That way, it gets big media coverage, talk in DC, and plenty of MONEY to special interests, the pockets of politicians, businesses tied to whatever the WAR hustle is, and welfare to all that are identified as the needy.

I would love to go to DC. Run for office at least, work for my district’s best interests, or my country’s. But I’m not rich, don’t know people who are, and can’t set aside my principles to be the slime ball to get in. I’m not cute (woman angle), not tall with an outstanding military record/business record (men) that will wow anyone. Not a lawyer either – those are 60% of the problem now.

But now, the final threat: the “Socialists” own Biden, well, share him with China (70%). And they just don’t care. They hate America. They were taught that. Wonder why? The war on educating or thinking critically has been lost. Culture on the coasts, dominates the mindsets of tens of millions.

You’ll never see wholesomeness on a mainline TV channel again. I can’t even watch classic news channels (CBS, ABC, et. al.) without disgust. It’s propaganda and lies 24-7. And they try hard [to] convince people that anyone that supported Trump is a Nazi. (One hardly needed much effort to support him, if marginally so. At least we didn’t go to another Middle East war...remember gas prices? Remember prior to Corona we had more jobs than competent people to fill them? Imagine how much infrastructure could have been improved with a halfway coherent DC faction.)

The legal system is a joke. No justice. Just who has the most money or most oppression points. Equity, not equality, is the new Biden, old Obama, policy. The FBI or DOJ is now just another arm of the Democrat Party.

The transparency is already there. D.C. does not care what you think of them. Wall Street does not care. Big MNCs are pushing crazy critical race theory, or diversity/inclusion policies, like our Military will thanks to Biden. Media really does not care. And lastly, China is very contented to have Biden govern ALL of us.

This until Kamala takes over with Susan Rice as her VP? Two incompetent women that will have Nancy or AOC, depending on how you look at things, drive us finally off the cliff.

And they'll blame middle America, men mostly, for not doing their jobs and creating value to sustain their crazy policy. But [liberal] women voted for this stuff. They have more votes than men. They are liberal – and vote for more welfare. Women enjoy false security over freedom. And well, since LBJ, between wars and welfare, the WARS cited have been all it took to go from being a self-sufficient nation to a dependent nation.

Social chaos, destroying middle class with cheap Chinese goods, and blaming some “new problem” when it was always the same old problem: the subversion of American values. The diet of consumerism substituting for something fulfilling and meaningful, like a connection to something more important than one's self.

A God. A Country. A Family.

With such values, maybe, we would have averted that 30 trillion in debt. But the DC wealthy talk down to people like me, still – and think I can't figure out how empty their rhetoric is. They told me I'm worth $600 in December after crushing our economy for nine solid months.

But I'm the bad guy.

FEBRUARY 2021: Ethics Of Tech

Part I: (Original Link) Part II: (Original Link)

Much of this topic sprung from yet another Corbett Report and blog. So, thanks to him for illuminating both visually and verbally the dilemmas of 2021 that are rapidly being installed before our eyes.

James noted in an editorial the concept of haggling over price and the implications of that to our humanity. One can determine how we each stand on principle for certain aspects of life (or not), and how willingly people do, in fact, make a nice living (and hustle) out of getting people to cede their rights for “the greater good.”

As we are painfully aware, the last year was made about what rights were to be ceded to “stop the spread” or “flatten the curve” or “get better together” or “The Great Reset.” This was ethical priming or setting the position for a barter. How many begrudgingly gave up 15 days or 28 days to the governments of the world. (And who was telling these leaders this was a good idea? Or did they just conspire together at their shindigs yearly at DAVOS or the G8/20 that are but planning sessions for all of your lives?)

We trusted that given some compliance this would be ok. But it wasn't ok. They trapped us psychologically, at least, the more whorish types. The media gladly became like watch dogs, gleefully snitching on "commoners" that "deign to think for themselves." Such was not new, as the clip linked to is Clarence Thomas judicial confirmation hearing thirty years ago. (Notice the head of the committee was Joe Biden. The boil on America's ass has a long history.)

But back to our last year of prostituting our rights away to the greedy Globalists. The Gateses and the Xis and the Schwabs of the world have made the entire planet their philosophical bitch. They treat you as property – because you will have none – and only want you alive if you have value to them. That. Is. It.

You are mere commodity to be traded irrespective of the spark of humanity or desire for dignity and the overriding belief one should be left alone to guide their own lot. That Freedom was an idea that has generated way too many uncontrollable consequences (and corresponding interferences, from Globalists) that must be squelched out of the population. A reduced population. Many resisted.

But Globalists knew this too – and had a plan for it. That is why they ginned up a virus, a reaction to it (that Neil Ferguson creep) and offered a pre-packaged solution: vaccines, COVID Passes, and UBI if you comport their wishes further still. Restrict your speech (they had a professor tell you to stop talking and singing), to get PCR tests regularly (despite the known manipulation of cycles to garner positive or negatives), wear a mask or two (or three) because that will protect others from you. Maintain your distance and stop doing economic activity to save the environment. This appealed to the ones that dislike others (resent) based on wrong interpretations of social dynamics; and still, somehow, think the billionaires that say the right words really mean well for them. (And those billionaires are just spokesmen.)

And many millions, often at gun point or threats by local Milgram policing authorities, complied. In the United States, we saw 50 state governors exploit COVID adroitly to make some political hay or even get awards from Hollywood (owned by China) in locking down and killing off the old and infirmed. They introduced tons of racism back into the pot (China supported) – because the sheep needed more conflict and distraction. Meanwhile, the nonsense of lockdowns and ease ups (indulgences) were equally matched by the WHO (Word), the CDC (US), and the NHS (Brits). They contorted weekly or monthly to whatever narrative kept up this crazymaking while they knew their next moves better than you did.

Uncertainty keeps up the fear and stress – and demoralizes too. It works best on the most conditioned sheep in the herd. It unifies their direction to bleat out: "Follow the SCIENCE!" or: "if you just wore the mask we could get back to normal!" They don't know there is NO returning to "normal." Plus, for their friends, less, conditioned, they must choose to give in to these tantrums (submit to childish behavior) or discard the friendship (divide and conquer method success from the Globalist.)

For those that say, “I bet you didn’t say that back in March or April.” Well, I did here. Or another group might say, “you didn’t know anything about COVID. You just guessed.” I knew we never panicked like this before as an ENTIRE COUNTRY aside from: 9/11. And lo, the same issue – security, safety, new procedures, a domestic terrorism bill has become yet another push. (This after the 1/6 staged and pre-planned event to create the insistence we go after certain groups on U.S. soil.)

In the United States, my narrow point of view on this, is: we have allowed the most corrupted and compromised “leaders” to energetically take full power of this country. I can’t really foist 100% of the blame on them. We allowed them to hang around for 20-30-40-50 years (Biden, Pelosi, Feinstein, Schumer, McConnell, Clintons) and their administrative state operatives in all the Alphabet agencies (Fauci’s been around for 50 years, 35 as NIH director) to our greatest peril. Their local rubes got sold on welfare or policy stances that allowed the Federal Government to outstrip the local ones. And with Trump, they then used the State governors and mayors to subvert his executive authority, at will, while also placing all the blame on him. (Trump was a reaction to the problem...and he wasn’t a God or Emperor or a Dictator. He was only as effective as they allowed him – and depending on how one sees those actions, that is a haggle too.)

See: these people are not stupid. But they are viscous, conniving, narcissistic and exploitative politicians, lawyers and “professionals.” They are beholden to corporate interests and China to degrees still coming out. Gates has been pumping money into the D.C. area, for years, in multiple billions of dollars. All these politicians get a meager enough salary ($200K?) but become multi-millionaires worth more than corporate CEOs ($25 to 100M).

Why? They are haggling over price. Pelosi has been caught multiple times (VISA, Tesla) on stock trading for example. McConnell’s wife has her family ensconced in the transportation business in China. Her daddy is classmate and friend of the former CCP General Secretary Jiang Zemin. Feinstein knows Zemin from her mayoral days. Congress Eric Swalwell dated a CCP spy. California all but suckles at the China teat – as Newsom was cutting billion-dollar mask deals with a mask supplier without quality standards approved or them being in the medical supply field.

But the lockdowns were to help us survive COVID? No, lockdowns were to get back on the Globalist mission and get back at the entire Global commoner population that might of deign to think for themselves. Those that had freedom and also caught these Globalists one too many times. Prince Andrew, Bill Clinton, and the U.S. Congress that hated Trump so much they spent all their time trying to sabotage him out of office and damn those quaint notions of the United States of America Constitution. In the past year, the final nails were put into that document by the arrogance of people, like Pelosi, Schumer, McConnell, and their lesser sycophants, who just SHOWED how little they care about the LAW.

The New LAW will be “of the Technocrat, by the Bureaucrat, for the Plutocrat,” as Dave Ramaswamy said.

Technocracy

In Part 1, the discussion of conditioning through haggling the price of your freedoms was illuminated. As well as the who is benefiting from this haggle. But how did it become so easy?

The Free Then Submit Model was employed on the masses for the last quarter century with regards to Search, and later, social media. The Internet took off in the mid-1990s to create a generation of start-ups who had varying degrees of success. The ones who attempted to create business storefronts online to sell items or promoted them for sales were only modestly successful, at best, and many failed to the consternation of a nebulous term called 'The Market.' But the ones that survived, or later thrived, started with a Free model to gain traffic, freely allow people to explore, and then, socialize through their Web 1.0 blogs, emails, and chatrooms.

Yahoo! was the dominate search engine in 2000. Google in a decade became the master of all data search. Such data that was thought to be free and unencumbered by accessibility issues was the idealistic dream of the internet. If one could get online and utilize logical search term inputs to return high value outputs (search results), one could build a knowledge base hitherto unimaginable in any society just a mere 100 years prior. (Fiction aside.)

The Market had other plans.

Search spawned social media in so far as they operate in the technology space and gather gigabytes of data daily on their user bases. And that become a key facet: data collected to utilize these highly addictive machines (dopamine hit) to manipulate, condition, and target their audiences to bend to their will. Free to use; submit to the machine – if you want to continue to the 'next level.'

Simon Sinek's 4 Things That Hamstring Millennials<sup>44</sup>

- Parenting
- Technology
- Impatience
- Environment

Social Media is a Propagandist best tool and weapon. When it became clear that people wanted instantaneous responses and would do all the work for the site – enter data, likes, interests, upload photos and videos and the like – marketers and advertisers knew they had their sheep. In prior advertising experiences, these PR and ad men had to target based on whatever haphazard data collection tools they developed and kept as a company's intellectual or proprietary property.

Now, with the click captured and a clocking of time on a website or platform, they gathered the golden information needed to get the right eyeballs on the "right" things. Imagine how powerful this could be if you know 80% of people are easily suggestible (or agreeable) to most anything. Imagine if you had a message that you wanted to sink in – over and over and over – whether it was true or not? Whether it promoted unity or societal dysfunction?

Imagine if one bought advertising or populated the advisory board of the most powerful social media site (Facebook) that could filter out the content of competitors and heavily promote the content of a political party (Democrats) and their most favorite foreign ally (China)? Well imagination is not needed. It has occurred and will continue to occur. (Note: Selling $100K worth of advertisements to create a counterpoint on a platform taking in hundreds of millions, does not prove interference. It proves naivete in how much $100k will actually buy.)

What happens if what you sold them (mind you, people under 25, without a fully matured Prefrontal cortex, PFC) – a political philosophy or “everything is free” model – that at some level, is never humanly achievable. That inequality will exist no matter how many times you shuffle the deck of cards. (A key lay in how you play your hand – and how you get better at it through experience. And life has plenty of stories to support that.)

What do you do? How does such a powerful actor as a social media platform (Twitter, Facebook) became in a mere 15 years, deal with any resistance to its paid for and “company preferred” messaging? What if that resistance is guaranteed by the United States Constitution and its Bill of Rights?

You squelch it.

Because those advertisers don’t pay for an antithesis to their messaging, true, fake, or some gradation in between. What if those advertiser’s long-term objective is to cause societal collapse or a Civil War? How does one put their bottom line ahead of that? What is their loyalty to anything actually mean? We are back to haggling over price.

Bureaucracy

The troubling aspects of Media consumption and its propaganda uses are magnified by the self-absorption of the Federal (and State) Bureaucracy. These bastions of lifetime Socialism – a government-paid or supported position that requires zero output but for think tank papers, laws, regulations and most profitable, war and kickbacks– represent the primary nexus of degradation of United States power. These players are the Infiltrated, the Elitist, the Authoritarians that gladly partner with technology and the resultant billionaires to bring more misery to the entirety of society.

Most notably: they pit citizens against each other to fight over finite resources and stir up all sorts of Hegelian-based arguments to get policy implemented. Congress is a show (to keep up appearances), but more disconcerting is the malevolence it appears to have towards ½ the population based on where they live and their raw production of basic needs of society – food, water, and values regarding family and God. And its exploitation of the other ½ of the population to keep focused on grievances, identities, and their inadequacies, wherever they may reside (urban, suburbs and rural).

This overt toxicity had abated to a large degree prior to rise of the social media. (There are always elements of resentment based in old wounds. And they were being seeded since the 1960s in education.) But the destructive forces were fueled often by the bureaucrats – regarding family units, welfare dependence, and identity versus values-based politics.

The influence campaigns of the CCP on: Hollywood, Academia, Finance, Technology and Media are obvious. These silos of actors influence each other also towards a socialism model. They do so because: their positions are safely ensconced behind layers of self-delusion and monetary success. Their control of information (and the egregious misuses of data) have them believing they are productive, creatively so even. Technology sectors do produce amazing applications – coding is skill and can make other technologies sing whatever tune is desired – and that’s the problem. The benefit of technology in the wrong hands, influenced by the wrong people, can destroy functional societies and their freedoms. It is happening faster by the day.

9/11/2001 launched that idea. The Patriot Act and the two decades of dithering over in the Middle East showed the Bureaucracy never cared who the POTUS is (Trump was hardly the breaker of this Socialist will), but only that the rest of us “Normies” get on board. One better listen to what the MSM says. Even if it came out of the CIA, or China, or LeBron James or Hillary Clinton’s mouth. Even Trump got told “fake” troop numbers, but instead: focused often on his Twitter feed, fighting all of Media, until Silicon Valley (and Congress) decided he shouldn’t be allowed to do that anymore.

Imagine that power over the guy with the nuclear codes.

Plutocracy

Which bring us to the final group: the Plutocrat. Funny the root word: Pluto is Greek for “wealth.” It is the smallest planet (not arguing this), furthest from us (Neptune), and the only one tilted (17°) on its orbital path. It was discovered in 1930, right after the stock crash of 1929.

Plutocrats believe they should design your future. They are dreamers. They see ahead to fill their days with opportunities. They also believe they are superior to you. Many are indeed quantifiably high IQ people. (Gates scored a 1590 on his 1st SAT attempt.)

But they obsess over their power. Many seemingly cannot be wealthy enough to cash out and retire. They put on their “Foundation hat” and discuss things they picked up from some nerdier, IQ-heavy, but social skills barren, researcher, or scientist. They buy more people to tell them how wonderful it all could be. And these yes men and women go out and procure the science, technology, regulatory approvals, and Congress people and State representatives to make something happen, whether you will like this, or not.

They will never actually lose any wealth, willingly. Their investment will be adequately hedged, generally with your tax monies, because something will interfere with their Utopian vision. Namely: reality. Whether it is that people do not conform to their sales pitches or these folks just see dangers the Plutocrat does not envision or care about. (From their Plutonian perspective – the outcomes really will not impact them. So, their lived experience is based on whatever little nose-to-the-grindstone life-is-hard and values they received.)

So many times, we find out these sorts really were highly blessed from their onsets. They rarely had to want for anything. Or their hardships were not as personal as they are cleaned up by their favorite pigeons: the media. Their visions, time and again, are a deep-seeded or engrained resentment against people. (Lack of control of themselves projected onto others – the need to control all of them. A bit psychopathic – ASPD for the psych crowd.)

The need for ON DEMAND servitude has become the Plutocrat’s way of life. People jump for them. They suck up. A lot. They tell them how great they are. (Only takes them 30 seconds to do it as shown.)

But what bothers them too: that your way of life is catching up to theirs. That many hundreds of millions have the access to all the information. All the high-end material goods made – often in sweat shops the Plutocrats own – are plentiful enough and easily found. All the same instantaneous gratifying ways (that many Plutocrats made money off of too, but not through their personal inventiveness, but rather, off nerd IQ) are available also to the Plebes. As one writer, Rob Henderson, called the response to this: Luxury Beliefs.

Luxury Beliefs create the façade these Plutocrats are much more enlightened and therefore worthy of listening to in spite of the overwhelming evidence such “beliefs” damage societies. But that almost always is the point. To create the chasm again.

For these Plutocrats can no longer distance on outward material wealth (100,000 square foot home) or a 150-foot yacht, but they can out do you by saying, "Open Borders allows people to be equal in all ways."

Because: The Plutocrat will never see a day in close contact with Borderless societies as they will ferry themselves to a private island where they may garner some sick entertainment value from watching humanity crumble. Stimulation of their brain – problem-reaction-solution to the expansion of their wealth (over their other fellow Plutocrats). This is a game to them – sociopathic one at that.

This is easily sold through the manipulative tactics of the Technocrat, the Bureaucrat, and the word salad of the Plutocrat. The Technocrat will employ advertisements and propagandist tools to get you to see the message over and over again. Social pressure will build due to "conformance" being a preferred "social status" trait. The Bureaucrat will equally get this done through legislation and crack downs to enforce this Plutocrat's Luxury Belief. Then, the Plutocrat will do the rounds on Media to make the argument, with no pushback, so as to emotionally sell the idea of how wonderful it all can be. They will have handy some study (that they bought) and a simple slogan (to engrain in people's heads) so it becomes a ubiquitous idea. Emotions and even musical scores will accompany these Luxury Beliefs.

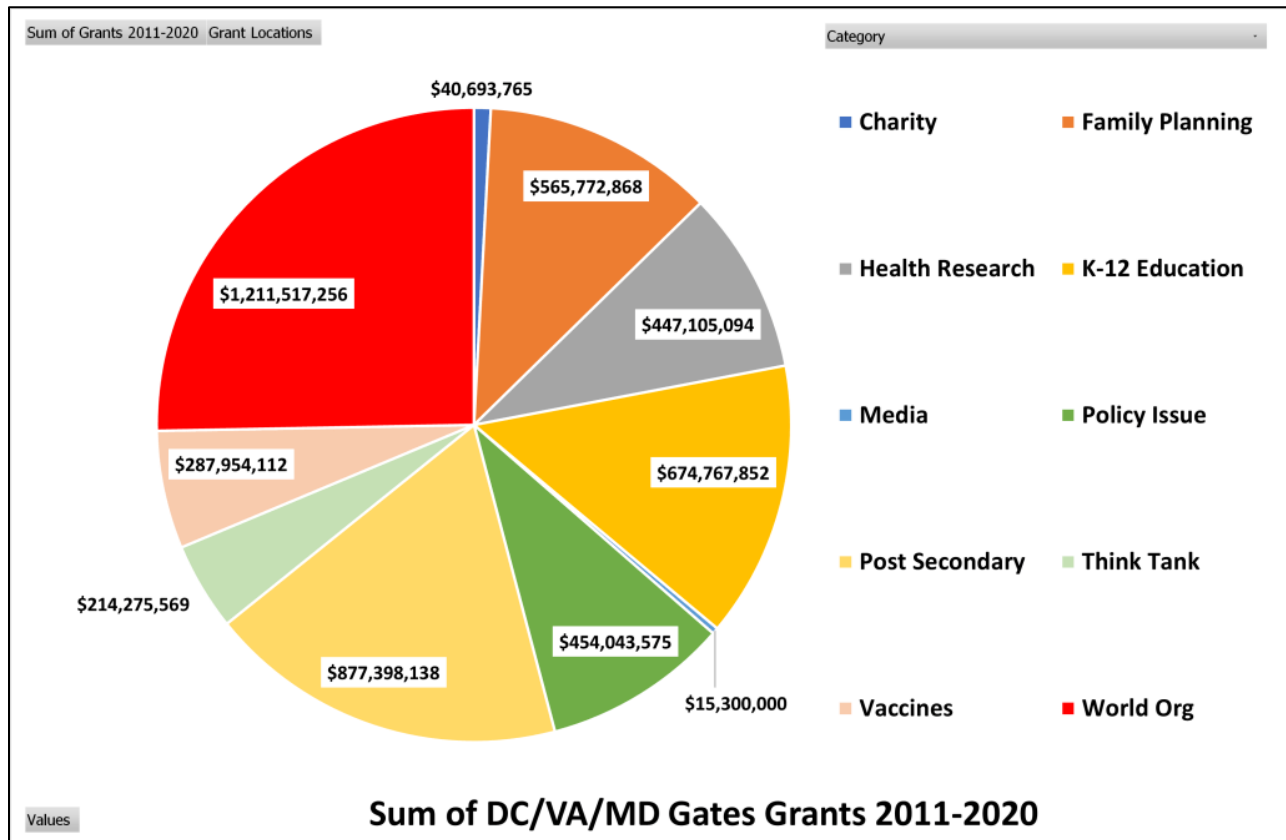

Anyone that takes the counterargument will get labeled as per usual as: "Fringe," "Phobic," an "Ism," or "Conspiracy nut" that keeps the conditioned people accepting the Plutocrat's main thesis. And most will never question too much why there is no debate or an equal hearing of the argument against it. Or investigate facts of the case.

That would be DEMANDING too much.

And thus, one has haggle away their rights from listening to someone who has all the privileges but none of the pain that comes with them.

MAY 2021: Tale Of The Gates

The simple history on Gates:

His father was a top leader in Planned Parenthood which was founded by eugenicist Margaret Sanger.

His father, the lawyer, taught his son about contracts and how to exploit them.

Bill was ever wise to learn this. He has exploited people to get Microsoft into operation by buying an operating system; and then, getting IBM's best concepts early on, courtesy of his mother's relationship to IBM and their board.

Gates monopolized the computing market with Windows. But then tried the same with Internet browsing, involving Netscape, leading to anti-trust actions by the DOJ.

Gates was not well-liked by the late 1990s in many circles.

Gates learned his philanthropic rehabilitation schtick from John D. Rockefeller.

Gates, like Rockefeller, became passionately obsessed with healthcare and has eyes on all the top medical schools.

Gates deployed his enormous fortune “earned” to buy up K-12, universities, think tanks, world organizations, private and public pharmaceutical, media and other institutions to control opinions, shape their policy, and promote vaccinations for the entire world.

Gates founded GAVI Alliance in 2000.

Gates receives enormous backing from Warren Buffett. Buffett from 2007-2020 has injected $31 Billion in Berkshire Hathaway stocks sold into the Gates Foundation Trust.

Gates called for a “Decade of Vaccines” in 2010, forming a working group to that end that also included NIH’s Dr. Anthony Fauci.

Gates organizational capture model includes much of the D.C. policy apparatus and its leading medical university: Johns Hopkins.

Gates “predicted” a pandemic crisis to hit during a TED talk.

He has also made Population with Climate Change a key aspect of his writings. (August 2020 Gates Notes)

Dr. Anthony Fauci was also heavy into predicting such a pandemic would hit the current Trump administration in 2017. This while using the NIH to fund GOF studies that were offshored to China’s Wuhan Virology Lab.

The Wuhan Virus was not naturally occurring. It was designed and altered from the SARS-COV-1 virus of 2003 era. (Nicolas Wade article.)

Gates Foundation, along with Johns Hopkins, ran a Pandemic tabletop exercise in October 2019, Event 201.

CEOs around the globe quit or cash out in enormous numbers in late 2019. Even more than during the financial crisis of 2008.

Gates, appeared at DAVOS in January 2019, and touted a 20-to-1 return on his $10 billion dollar investments in Vaccines. He also mentioned “political and international issues” as constraining his further moves.

Gates funded Imperial College via grant to tune of $79M in March 2020. Neil Ferguson supplied the model that was often cited early as justifying lockdowns. Imperial started a new academic department in April with Neil heading it up.

Gate funded the IHSE model, if indirectly, as it was built by U. of Washington and Johns Hopkins, two of his largest “grant” benefactors. (Washington has received over $1.5 Billion)

Gates is connected to ID2020. Research done by Dr. Kevin McHugh (MIT, Rice) was done at the behest of the Gates Foundation. The mRNA technology push – which is untested and more alarming, could bring out latent but dormant genetic issues to the receivers of it. (Foundation supplied Moderna with $20M in funding. Moderna had never released an FDA-approved vaccine. And still haven't.)

Gates is heavily tied to Common Core K-12 indoctrination. (Federalist article)

Gates surrogates, like Dr. Fauci, Dr. Leana Wen, and others, appear on MSM propagandizing fearful and controlling messages about masks, lockdowns, and vaccinations.

Bill Gates is Rockefeller 2.0. Only, with a far greater plan, supported by many more adherents to his world vision.

Gates is connected to Jeffrey Epstein. So much so, that his wife, Melinda, was concerned, and now, is divorcing him.

Gates funds the Clinton Health Access Initiative to the tune over $500M.

Gates in 2018, provided 22% of WHO funding directly, or indirectly, through grants to 30+ organizations.

There are too many aspects to this story which should be alarming. Gates is not a medical doctor or a trained expert in epidemiology – though he has fashioned himself that way. He has bought his way into the highest levels of science and likely subverted those persons to give him the outcome he wants. (WHO as well.)

His charity is hardly charitable. He has made enemies in India. He has stamped Africa as an experimentation lab for a host of “technology and vaccine trials.” His obsession with vaccinations while doing very little for ongoing development and improving people’s health through more basic needs (food security, water, hygiene, and education on diet and exercise) shows this is not about personal health. Rather, a crisis creator to get a payoff for his agendas – which overlap out to China as well as CGTN is glad to broadcast.

From The Federalist in 2017 by Joy Pullmann stated on Gates funding education:<sup>45</sup> “Agreed, that’s a bad idea that failed miserably, both in PR and in teacher effectiveness terms, but it’s one bad bite out of a rotten apple. Looks like Gates is just going to bite again from another angle. It’s the old rationalization for communism: “Great idea, terrible implementation.” Yes, that sometimes happens, but what about considering whether the implementation train wreck was caused by a bad idea?

In lieu of ramming his preferred, untested education theories through a mindhive of unelected bureaucrats elated to be showered with Gates money and attention, over the next five years the Gates Foundation will spend $1.7 billion on myriad smaller initiatives. “We anticipate that about 60 percent of this will eventually support the development of new curricula and networks of schools that work together to identify local problems and solutions,” Gates says.

This curricula, however, will be explicitly tied to Common Core and its cousin, the Next Generation Science Standards (which academic reviewer’s rate of even more obviously low quality). Similar experiments in New York and Louisiana, the latter of which Gates cites, have yielded uniformity but not uniformly good curricula or proven improvements for student achievement.”

MAY 2021: The Perfect Part

Once upon a time, you had a factory that produced 99.8% acceptable parts. Some were a bit off, didn't last as long, or had issues, but overall, they were productive for the customers that desired them. But .2% were defective, or ill. The supreme leader of the factory said, "we MUST ACHIEVE 100% perfection!"

A CRISIS COMMITTEE was formed. Billions upon billions spent to analyze, model, hypothesize, and suggest expensive and scientifically-approved ways to get that final .2% "acceptable" to the leader.

NO! Perfect!

Some input was provided by "the workers," who dealt with this problem daily. The workers saw it was highly plausible to just isolate those .2% and determine what made them unacceptable and how to do cheap quality checks on them to improve their acceptability. These workers even determined that some in the 99.8% were more variable, than normally allowed, and that preventative rework, would help them endure longer. This so that the customers that these parts were important to, long-term, would care deeply about them.

The "worker" ideas were simple, cheap, often, merely a reworking of a costly system reliant on RADICAL IDEAS. But they were soundly rejected. Ridiculed. Mocked. And derided as uncaring because they didn't care enough to provide BIG RADICAL CHANGES to this factory that had produced Billions upon Billions of parts, with minimal flaws, in totality.

The CRISIS COMMITTEE decided to REIMAGINE the ENTIRE FACILITY. Moved around all the assembly lines; reassigned job duties; idled “useful” sub-parts, while spending billions more on archaic or outdated programs, that never were profitable, at all, to endeavor in for the factory.

“BUT THIS MATTERS!” they raved. “THIS FACILITY will be BETTER than EVER!” they ranted.

The CRISIS COMMITTEE had all the financial resources, the media promotion, the “intellectual horsepower” and the political will from the SUPREME LEADER. The LEADER, who was often known to create such opportunities, would then watch, as these subordinates scrambled around to meet his exacting desires. It was harmless fun for him. Like using a magnifying glass to burn up ants on the sidewalk. Or other more presently designed experiments on subordinates that did not comply to his will.

After many seasons of toil and setbacks and reprisals, the project resulted in 100% perfection. The factory didn’t produce as many parts. In fact, it produced so few, the customers grew tired and lost any motivation to even order more parts. The exhaustive operation was telling in that “the workers” were no longer around. Just an AI Robot with one task: final QC check. If a part managed to reach the Robot, the amount of dollars spent, to get it there, was astronomical, in retrospect. At least $1 Trillion US, before that currency became “antiquated and imperfect.”

Nonetheless, every so often, a part would make it through the final QC check. It had been perfected to the SUPREME LEADER’s exacting ideals. Then, after a short while, a flaw would emerge, and the magnifying glass would appear on his desk.

JUNE 2021: Psychopathic Sixes

Goal fixation is a blessing and a curse. The curse being: obsession to what end.

We have been living that “goal” for the past 18 months since we heard about “bat soup” and “wet markets.” And then later, when the 7-figure, billionaire-owned, propaganda media hacks decided it was now ok to mention “Gain of Function” and Wuhan Virology Lab as the source of these issues that kicked off in January 2020 worldwide. But it was always much deeper than even that hardly understood biological tampering with a virus. Much deeper, and uniquely connected back to one Jeffrey Epstein.

The objective or goal has been going on for at least two decades. Ever since we unlocked the human genome and started cataloging, tinkering with cell dynamics, and operating at the subcellular level, the sharpest and richest people involved, in this humanity altering path, are laser-focused on evolving us (or them) towards a transhumanistic state.

To them, and their six-sigma scientists, we are the experiment. Humanity is but 8 billion test subjects to be explored. We live on this Earth, as a random event, not a Godly event, to them; but rather, just operating in a petri dish as a collection of ill-productive and poisonous-to-other-species, human test subjects. This is what some in the elite group contend daily as they now say the quiet part out loud more and more.

They hire and backstop the keenest scientists to provide them the research, and social conditioning tools, needed to get other “3-sigma” people on board with this top-down, leverage-buyout-of-the-human-race game plan. It is a Brave New World and 7.5 billion of us are easily expendable to the 30,000 6-sigma people and their 25,000,000 3-sigma technocrats lordling over potentially 400,000,000 feudal serfs. [Who is defined as “6-sigma” is not based on intelligence, solely. Certainly not ethics. But rather, the most pernicious psychopathic people one has ever encountered. If you can't see it, check your psychopathy privilege.<sup>46]</sup>

Psychopathic Sixes, Technocratic Threes & Feudal Masses

One might say, at this point, "What's Jeffrey Epstein got to do with any of this?" Well, check out his website. (Page 1, Projects, Background, Philanthropy) Epstein dabbled, a lot, in these topics:

- Study the evolution of molecular biology with the primary use of mathematics.
- Mathematical model of how cancer cells evolve as well as infectious bacteria and viruses such as HIV
- Predict and minimize resistance to HIV drugs.
- Supported many leading scientists including Stephen Hawking, Martin Nowak, Gregory Benford, Lee Smolin, Seth Lloyd, Lawrence Krauss, May-Britt and Edvard Moser.
- Open Cog was founded by AI scientist, Ben Goertzel, PhD. Mr. Goertzel is CEO of AI software company Novamente LLC and bioinformatics company Biomind LLC; Chief Technology Officer of biopharma firm Genescent Corp.; Vice Chairman of Humanity+; Advisor to the Singularity University and Singularity Institute; External Research Professor at Xiamen University, China; and general Chair of the Artificial General Intelligence conference series

Jeffrey Epstein, however, was quite the mover and shaker at Harvard and MIT. Places where scientists like Charles Lieber were working with Chinese scientists to get into the nitty gritty of what makes (us) tick. Mainly so such 6-sigmans can tinker with and control all of humanity. I mean, why else?

Think about it: are they working hard on macro-level problems? How to improve mechanics of materials, urban and suburban structures or improving society's choices towards actual human improvements in living?

Not really.

They have given up on "making the case," as it were, "on solutions" based on humanity's self-improvement and sustained progress as a cohesive society with separate individual interests and desires supported. [Those desires that hurt others explicitly get a prison cell. Thus laws. But to our Psychopathic Sixes, who game the system – and hire the best 3-sigma lawyers to get them off – they grow easily bored with this society's "stagnation" that interferes with them.]

Instead, they are uniquely fascinated by technology married to the human; or rather, controlling the human for a finite life expectancy until they have exhausted their usefulness, a la Logan's Run. While also, seeking to differentiate themselves as "6-sigma elders" by a prolonged life expectancy. They don't want to die – they just want constant entertainment from Feudal Masses struggling to understand their existence. [The "religious heathen," the lack of scientism, as they call us "stupid and uneducated."]

Their intermediary goal now is to get us to war amongst ourselves; use Milgram "law and order" drones, your cops and military officers, to get us to comply to insane, freedom-revoking edicts that no one gets to vote on – or if they do, they just rig the vote. To provide also "free money" to the dull and average folk while destroying their motivations. Destroy too incentive-based business innovations (if they do not own them). And finally, installing "systems" of surveillance, censorship and lots of injections (for free)!

Now, this takes time. But the fear porn of propaganda around the Wuhan Flu has cemented in many a sheepish soul's mind, "This is real! I must be afraid! Help me government! Help me NGO!" The Psychopathic Sixes have to keep the Masses fighting, feuding, jockeying for meager position gains while the Masses continue to provide these Psychopathic Sixes (666) enough menial support and entertainment nightly.

God vs. Technology

Let's segue for a nanosecond. The search for the God Particle by the "Sigmas" is not about mass. Rather, these Psychopathic Sixes are looking for the God within us down to the subcellular and infinitesimal level. They want to find it – and kill it. For the Psychopathic Sixes, that is what they do.

"People have always feared death and dreamed of escaping it. But until now, that hope has been formulated in religious terms. Transhumanism promises that death can be conquered physically, not just spiritually; and the movement has the support of people with the financial resources to make it happen, if anyone can."<sup>47</sup>

The story is simple: if they can find what makes up a soul – not blood or heartbeats or brain function or the "clump of cells" that make you, unique – they can defeat God. For such atheists

(as many 3-sigmams are too), this gives them the defeat and the method to move ahead with greater ambitions – that which one can kill, one can control at a whim.

Where do you think this recent propagandized push for Moderna “mRNA” vaccine is going? Which is not a vaccine – as Dr. Sheri Tenpenny, who is an expert on vaccines – has noted. Dr. Tenpenny notes too: The Bill Gates Foundation has invested in Moderna – $20 million – and knows co-founder, Robert Langer, quite well. And another M.D. of D.C. (Fauci) might even own some patents as well.

But why now? Why 2020-21? These questions are above my security clearance: none. But one can hypothesize about the why. Jeffrey Epstein changed the co-executor of his will days before his death to Dr. Boris Nikolic.<sup>48</sup> Who is that? Bill Gates former science officer and investor in Schrodinger.

BORIS NIKOLIC, M.D.
Managing Director

Dr. Nikolic is a physician and investor who previously served as chief advisor for science and technology to Bill Gates, leading select for-profit and not-for-profit investment activities. His investments spanned the life science, information technology and health care sectors, including companies such as Foundation Medicine, ResearchGate, Schrodinger and Nimbus Therapeutics.

Dr. Nikolic completed postdoctoral training in transplantation immunology at Harvard Medical School and served as an assistant professor of medicine at Massachusetts General Hospital/Harvard Medical School. He has authored more than 70 articles, patents and patent applications, and has co-founded several biotechnology companies that have since been acquired. Dr. Nikolic earned his M.D. from University of Zagreb School of Medicine in Croatia, and clinical training at University Hospital Centre in Zagreb.

Dr. Nikolic sits on the Board of Directors for several of Biomatics' portfolio companies including Encodia and Omniome. He is also a board observer for Cytrellis and Verve.

Follow the science equals follow the agenda. Schrodinger links back to Bill Gates as well. Schrodinger has Chinese (and Gilead Sciences investors), who are connected to the very pinnacle of the Chinese Communist Party, who are connected to the tops of the D.C. government (Mitch McConnell’s wife, Elaine Chao, whose father is close personal friend of Jiang Zemin, former Paramount Leader of the CCP).

Not So Tinfoil-y, AI, That Is

Epstein may have signaled out to Bill Gates and others: Initiate the Psychopathic Sixes mission. Here the story splits into two camps, at the top of the Six-sigma camp. Alex Jones, Mr. Tinfoil, has said that is real possibility. (I will not un-credit that thought.)

Look at 2020. And today. We have doctors pushing vaccines and psychopathic old bureaucrats that have told whatever story advances this agenda. Do as you’re told. [Fauci said this regarding people’s rights in late fall of 2020.]

GRANTEE	DIVISION	DATE	REGION SERVED	COMMITTED AMOUNT
Xiamen University	Global Policy and Advocacy	MARCH 2020	GLOBAL	$600,000
	GRANT TOPIC	DURATION (MONTHS)	GRANTEE LOCATION
	Global Health and Development Public Awareness and Analysis	13	Xiang'an District, Fujian, China

Gates only grant to this university lands in March 2020.<sup>49</sup> Hmmm? One does not think that is mere chance. [Ben Goertzel, PhD. works there.] But that's not what really matters here. Here is what Ben thinks, from Open Cog, circa 2010<sup>50</sup>:

Now Is the time for Artificial General Intelligence...

“In 1965, I.J. Good projected an “Intelligence Explosion” – a period of history in which AI systems would rapidly get smarter and smarter, enabling amazing feats of digital wizardry and ultimately – in some aspects of general intelligence, at least – outdoing its human creators.

It is now 2017, and technology has advanced a long way since Good's time. The notion of an intelligence explosion has become almost commonsensical in some circles, with pragmatic visionaries like Ray Kurzweil and Intel CTO Justin Rattner arguing that AIs with general intelligence beyond the human level can be expected by the 2040s.

An increasing subset of professional AI researchers shares this optimism — as do we at OpenCog. We intend to be on the cusp of this intelligence explosion, poised to ride the possibilities of thought, and potentially far earlier than the 2040s.”

One does not know the final result of this goal. The WEF, Gates (who may have served his purpose as a fake science guy), CCP & DC, have at their disposal enormous Capital (print money), Weaponry and Surveillance to coordinate ALL together to submit 7.8 billion people. But They can't do it flat out.

So, they stir up the pot with COVID (1.0, 2.0, 3.0), pure racism, and the inevitable struggle for positioning in THEIR SIX SIGMA CRAFTED WORLD ORDER. They will emotionally abuse and exhaust us into submission – psychopathic methods to achieve their ends.

One hopes and believes the GOD in the DETAILS foils ALL their plans.

JULY 2021: Personal Identity

(Original Link)

The everlasting devotion to one's country is a good marker for personal integrity, loyalty and commitment to one's duty in life: to make each day better. People wake up every day in countries around the world, yearning to be free, and to do better. They often, are not free in any meaningful sense, but hope to be.

The dictators and the oligarchs, the bureaucrats and the military, create restrictions on speech, movement, arms, and one's daily tasks, calling it benevolence, or "for your own good." These empowered people play on emotions, like fear of the invisible or future dangers, or divvy people up by their identifiable characteristics because of a keen understanding of the nature of primitive thinking. Garnering a majority, manipulated people do elect themselves into bondage, by believing in the snappy propaganda and falling prey to "their side" is morally better based on those uncontrolled dangers. Elimination of governments, and class, and control means, sounds wonderful, ideal even; but nature abhors a power vacuum, and the fight towards "stability and freedoms" will just cycle once again.

One detours back to that concept because cycles drive our being. Books are written on that concept – and we are living through a turning of cycles for certain. Many felt that they lived through interesting times – fights for freedom or staving off humanity's annihilation – and the stories there are too numerous and too fraught with point-of-view discussions to go into.

So, we won't go any further on that discussion.

More personally, my grandfather, William L. Clark, Jr. was born in 1926 to a barber in Paris, Illinois. His family moved to Gary, Indiana sometime in the early 1930s, if one recalls properly.

William was never a great school person – never graduated high school – but one recalls his penchant for solving the New York Times crossword puzzles late in his life and his horse betting hobby and keen interest. His life had general happiness from laborer work, raising his daughters, and being in love with the same woman for over 35 years, Mildred.

Meanwhile, his greatest adventure: driving an LCVP in World War II in the Pacific Theatre. He joined up in 1944, and a year later, he landed at Okinawa, Naha Beach, considered the 2nd largest landing assault ever undertaken. His duty was to his country in winning a war that was to end in atomic destruction just a few months later.

During boot camp, his younger brother, Harold died in a drowning accident. My grandfather made his way back for the funeral of his brother who was nicknamed “The Firecracker” because he was born on the 4th of July. Harold’s death may have prevented his brother’s. The ship grandpa was assigned to, would later be sunk in 1944 combat. As my grandfather said, “my brother saved my life.” His brother died just one day before the largest amphibious assault ever mounted in World History.

My grandfather was aware of much – as he, was like many of his generation, dismayed by eager U.S. politicians importing in “cheap Jap and Chinese shit,” as he called it in 1980s. This was back when people said what they meant. And holding such opinions, while seen by these Postmodern-Marxists as racist and bigoted, were just his way of expressing displeasure at the “Globalization” forces that he once fought against. (People that extend their rule over others through asymmetric hybrid warfare, subverting another’s society.)

His identity was being a strong man during perilous times. One can only hope, in this day and turning, one can be half the man he was during his perilous times. One remembers his desire to be like our Founding Fathers and praised the Independence they sought. As history will note: William L. Clark, Jr. died on July 4, 1986. 210 years had passed since our nation’s formal declaration of such Independence. Now, 35 years since his passing, such Independence and Freedom lays in the balance for humanity, once again.

God Rest, Grandpa. God Speed, Americans. God Save Us All.

AUGUST 2021: Mass Psychosis

The fragile mind can only take so much. So much pain, so much frustration, and that it is only one mind, can often be its saving grace against all of that pressure. For that mind, and body, can refuse to operate (cease to exist); or the mind will harden into a will that detests that which has attempted so desperately to subvert its view of reality and humanity. More disastrously to humanity though, a fragile mind can be exploited well to be a weapon for would-be Rulers that despise all Free Thinkers.

So when such external forces, such as those launched onto the Western World in March 2020, by China's CCP, the propaganda and fear, the lies and coverups, the mechanisms of 21st century warfare, contorted a century of history regarding coronaviruses (and the responses to them), a mind had to steel up quickly and ignore these psychological warfare tactics.

Many, so many, did not.

Because of years of social conditioning, driven by MASS & SOCIAL MEDIA, that contorted the number of genders, inverted burdens of proof (guilt by accusation #METOO), and ponied up WILD narratives on the 45th President – he is not a Russian agent, there are no pee tapes, and no wars were started for the Pentagon – the MASSES bought into the COVID FEAR Engine. This is Step 1 in the excellent article on Tyranny by Brandon Smith.<sup>51</sup>

That fear, ginned up, and propagated by a medical establishment that should have seen this for what it was, didn't. A large portion of MDs refused to ask questions, offer a solutions-based hypothesis, but were also equally quick to assign blame in medical journals (NEJM) to Donald Trump. Instead, these medical pros ceded inordinate influence and power to the CDC, NIH, and of course, "Dr. Tony Fauci," the highest paid U.S. government "servant."

This made it easy to further divide the United States people (and many other countries in the world) into an US and THEM category. Based on a cursory review of Fauci's emails (3,000+ pages) many "scientists" are influenced into this (or his) worldview. A view likely primed up by EVENT 201 Pandemic exercises and grant initiatives from vested parties in Big Pharma.

Step 2, a Mob Mentality, became apparent – as the term Karen illuminates this well. Karens, whether male or female, used their newly found power of control of others – wear your cloth mask, stay 6-feet away from me, stop working small shop owner, get the vax! – all at the eager behest of the MEDIA MUPPETS and FAUCI as well.

Those media skills work for D.C., Davos and the CCP, in reading a well-honed script of talking points. These align to whatever narrative the WHO (China-operated, Gates-funded), or Fauci (never consistent by the way), put forth. Fauci demonstrated a sign of pathology, "noble lies", coming from a "health official." Politicians (Trump) do spin. But "Fauci-ism" made Trump's statements appear truthful and prophetic. (Masks, HCQ + Zinc, Lockdowns)

Step 3 (False Piety), tandems with Step 2, resulting in the growth of Karen, the MOB. Karen, who is seeking out treats for obedience and compliance while also shaming others mercilessly online, does so because their milieu and their MEDIA encourages it in a feedback loop.

The power of SOCIAL MEDIA, again operated at the behest of a tight alignment with D.C., Davos and the CCP, manifested well in the Karen World. The prior fifteen years of rapid development of online personal interaction, had been a massive social conditioning and data collection trap, neatly sprung on us all. (This author included.)

The use of technology is always a cost-benefit, and trade-off decision tree. For anything so easy, and basically "free," generally flows to this principle: if it is free – you are the product. From this, Step 4 (Gilded Cage) is easy to be trapped in by an unsuspecting person.

The safety of "right think" on social media – conformity, being a follower, pushing government narratives, unquestioning, gets rewarded with carrots called likes, followers, or views. Those sticks, de-platforming, wielded by the Fascistic entities (Facebook, Twitter, YouTube) punish people by removing their voices from the town square. This proves further their illegitimate behaviors (if they were just mere platforms) and makes them exactly the places NOT to be.

Alternatives and parallel outlets have spawned with great growth in them, fueled by the need to have a voice. However, these too operate at the regime's toleration and have echo chamber, group-think characteristics, if people stay unaware of the stimuli they are processing through them.

Evidence grows that make it apparent the ESTABLISHED TECH GIANTS operate merely at governments' behest, subsidy and directives. Which one(s) is a larger and more telling story.

Step 5 (Resentment) is best told by Brandon Smith<sup>52</sup>:

“The truth is that if voluntarism was a valued ideal then this whole fight could be avoided. If the collectivist cult was willing to accept the notion that they can choose to live in a highly micromanaged environment while others can choose to live independently, then there would be no crisis. We could easily go our separate ways. But this is not how totalitarians think: To them, all people are chattel, we are property to be staked down and reeducated until we see the light. And if we don’t see the light, we are to be done away with and erased.”

Totalitarian Dictators

Right now, in 2021, Washington D.C. is following a game plan to destroy the United States of America at the behest of Globalist forces. It didn’t just start this year, mind you. Rather, the quintessential moment or tipping point came nearly twenty years ago on 9/11.

From that new “war theatre”, that again had the MEDIA MUPPETS (New York Times, for example) ginning up D.C. falsehoods, the U.S. taxpayer acquired over $20 trillion in U.S. Debt. To ramp up the FEAR to sell the American people on that danger, that many swallowed because of a mild MASS PSYCHOSIS of Trust in MEDIA, the Patriot ACT was passed and civil liberties were eroded henceforth without a whimper. (Meanwhile, China got their trade fingers deep into U.S. companies and all of D.C. got rich off the backs of middle class, Middle America. Republicans and Democrats alike as the Uni-party is exposed and it lashes out daily now as the directives above show.)

Fast forward twenty years, and We the People, are NOW the top U.S. Government Domestic terror threat. This as President Joe Biden, a staunch advocate of the Iraqi and Afghanistan Wars, now is responsible for the quick collapse of Afghanistan, mere months into his administration.

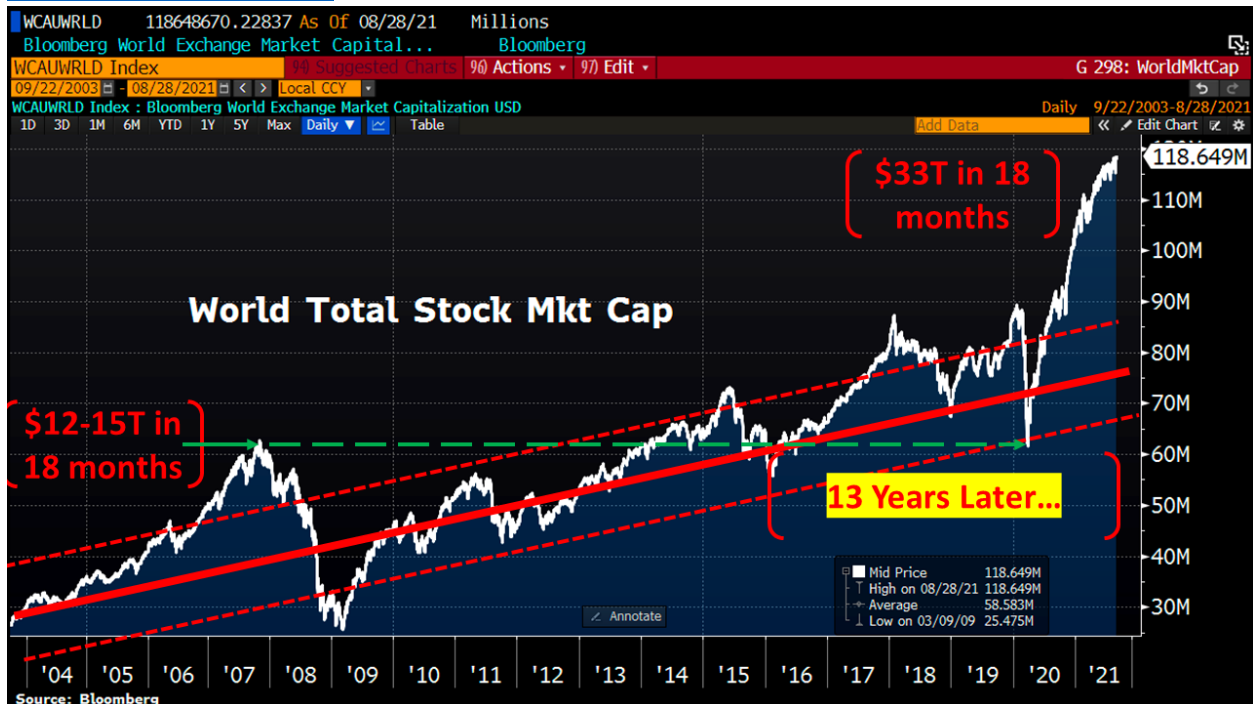

How did the most powerful military get so owned, so quickly? Did someone renege on a deal? Negotiate with only one side to the suspicion of the other?

[Hint: Biden undermined the deal Trump had in place for a withdrawal with conditions. TRUMP is not the President. And cannot be until January 20, 2025, assuming he wins the 2024 election, if that takes place. Trump, is not a savior, or a dictator, or right on many, many things.

However, look at the Clintons, Bushes, Obamas, in an honest, fair and neutral assessment, and Trump's biggest accomplishments far outweighed his downsides and those prior POTUS's achievements. The D.C. people (many from those prior admins) hated him for daring to cross them. If these words are violence to you, then you may have MASS PSYCHOSIS.]

SEPTEMBER 2021: Globalist Treason

The entirety of human history has been a competitive battle for resources. Stasis is rare and short; change merely fluctuates within the thoughts of those often called The Elite. In olden times, the physically most imposing male leader could get a large group of males to cooperate to bash in the heads of another large group of males, that guarded their preferred females, in a quest for a bit of real estate. Generally, fruitful for multiplying with any of those females, in either camp, protected by these male groups.

After a while, some developed a “deity” complex, and sold others on this, likely as not, because they somehow survived for a prolonged enough time to oversee a couple of generations of people, thus cementing an eternal existence mechanism in the minds of non-inquisitive and/or daily survival-based people. Those that lived nearly as long, and were, well above average thinkers (special) likely had to hide their presence, even as they noted and mocked the “king,” the original conspiracy theorists that were right.

From divine right, and later, the Hereditary Rule – opposed by the heretics – we moved on into the modern era of rule by (or through) governments. Governments that came in all designs, based on fairly new philosophical arguments and political economies, cropped up around the world in the Age of Enlightenment.

The benchmark of this: The U.S. Constitution vested powers in a decentralized governance, weighing the rights of man, versus the rule of law through a democracy that is limited by its diffusion of its powers. The Republic part is lost in the modern MASS MEDIA discussion of our country as these propagandists distort and smear, using CCP Communist tactics in the present day.

The Problem at Hand

The problem at hand – COVID – was a quest to break apart all those diffusions of power, as centralization is a key aspect of Communists and Kings alike. The march through the institutions, the leftist way to destroy free market forces (and set up barriers to entry for any new ideas), gathering up huge market shares, and then, silencing those that speak out through labeling them as racists, misogynistic, xenophobic, or science deniers. The plan to do this has been going on for quite a while, guised in a variety of fear-porn driven media.

The drop-dead date of 2030 – to achieve the UN/Agenda 2030 – was threatened by the toggling back to a more benign President in Trump. Say whatever you will, the Globalists were highly pissed off about his being in charge of anything. OR: these forces used him as the “forcing function” (MASS Psychosis encouraged by the media) to get their sheep (a mass of Postmodern, Marxist-trained wokety woke weasels) that thirst for power and equity (UBI, socialized medicine, free education, free rent, free everything).

When it comes to such an Agenda, the trap can be designed based on whatever one desires (Hegelian) when control of the masses, through media, as Edward Bernays said can be easily done. “If propaganda can be used for war. It can be used for peace.” Trump was no different – he got scared, or corrupted too, along the way, into pushing these “McDonald’s vaccines” that don’t work for the purpose they were “purported” to do.

And these vaccines will be found, if people pay attention, to do exactly what they were designed for: the long-term permanent damage to many millions and even shortened life spans. (That is my hypothesis.)

Globalists Never Sleep

Globalists hate peace, hate stasis and stability, and desire chaos and confusion, to steal treasure in the trillions from government coffers. Globalists use NGOs and institutions dominated by their technocratic rubes – the circles of influence (UN, WEF, Council on Foreign Relations) – to push agenda after agenda after agenda. Has anyone seen them solve any problems yet?

Building perverse technology to execute these plans – embedded vaccine tracking, social credit score systems (ESG)<sup>53</sup>, boosters forever down to newborns, tracking your banking and movements – and the list goes on.<sup>54</sup> This sound like it improves society? It's about controlling all humanity without a wit of care about who lives or dies in the process.

The Money Shot

When you want this much control, there has to be a mechanism to keep that control. What is that? It's a well-armed military with state-of-the-art tracking mechanisms and a bought off legal system that never rules against administering such Totalitarian rule.

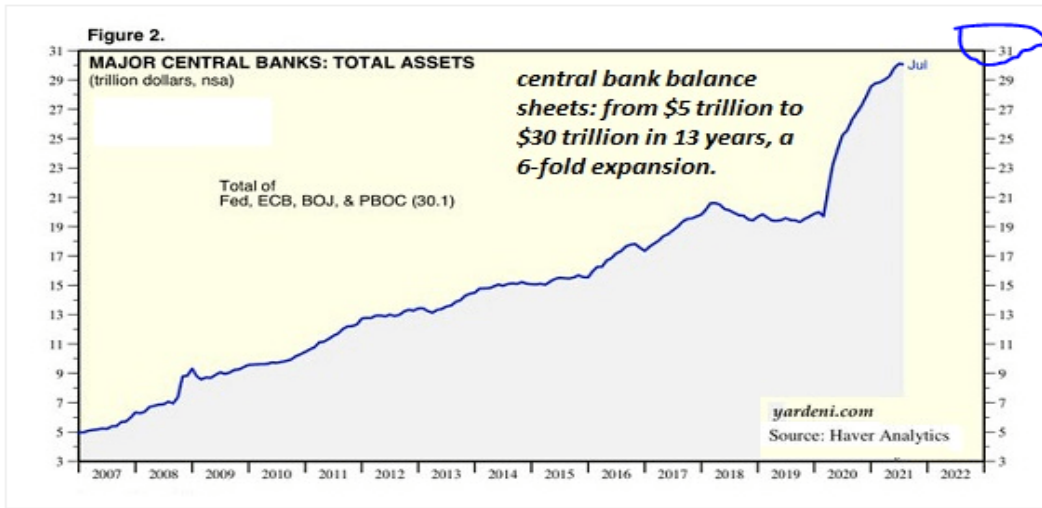

How? Money. And lots of it<sup>55</sup> into the hands of the greedy few that perceive themselves as superior (CEOs). These partners at the WEF<sup>56</sup>, for instance, show the corporations that have provided fealty to the China model, either by alliance or blackmail. (The CCP has done this so well – most don't pay any attention to them disappearing Jack Ma or the “fucking spy chief” as Hunter Biden called him.)

Governments around the world have turned over their responsibility for sane budgets, policy, and citizen's rights to NGOs/Think Tanks, World bodies (UN, WHO) and Corporations (Fascism). COVID-19 (a coronavirus) was an overblown response coordinated at Event 201, to CCP propaganda to the inconceivably incoherent responses driven by fear propagation to billions (the MASSES) to steal TRILLIONS. The gain-of-forcing-function here was to use old people as easy fodder (death due to their exacting vulnerability to ACE2 manipulation) for the media to hype up over and over to their viewers.

Meanwhile, the economic response can be seen in these long-term graphs highly expertly<sup>57</sup> by Charles Hugh Smith. The second one shows what one generally knows: there is a differential of twenty-five trillion plus in market capitalization of the world market outside of normal growth of profits.

[NOTE: $118 Trillion – $25 Trillion = $93 Trillion Market Capitalization. Subtract another $10 trillion in overvaluation that exists due to normal speculation and casino operations. This is a FED-Central Bank generated crisis.]

Other central banks followed this same expansion of monetary stimulus. If GDP has normalized, then why the continuing panic-expansion of monetary stimulus? The only logical explanation is the system was breaking down before the pandemic and its decay has accelerated.

We all know what happens when the expansion of debt, leverage, speculation and central bank stimulus falter by even the tiniest bit: the entire global phantom wealth bubble pops: this is visible in the chart of total debt, public and private:

SARS-COV-2 (the Wuhan Flu) circumvented the U.S. Constitution through the 10th amendment (50 state health departments and local mandates created confusion and chaos). While a national emergency threw away any hope of financial responsibility as the CDC, FDA, and NIAID director, Dr. Anthony Fauci, the top paid technocrat did all they could to assist politically-driven narratives, including racism.

Bait and Switch the Problem

These Globalists knew their marks – they have been feeding them fear narratives: the need for safe spaces at university; college-age men rape a lot; and racism is on the rise – when it isn't. Rather, the talk of racism, media-driven across the board, was on exponentially on the rise after 2010, just like the quantitative easing (QE) at the Central Banks.

This Neo-Marxist bait was an old shoe in American history. Trotted out neatly under the first black President and fueled by a very racist culture in China, who courted VP Joe Biden in this time frame. This as the Globalist destroyed the middle class, worldwide, increased inequity (to their Agenda's benefit)<sup>58</sup>, and had their next fall guy to advance this well: Trump, the billionaire, white and well-known. [Trump wasn't the first to bring up the birther issue: Hillary's camp did it in 2008.<sup>59</sup>]

The statistics on crime (below) show Americans becoming less violent across the country, more stable, and able to shake off a lackluster growth under 2 U.S. Presidents that put trillions in the pockets of corporations, ran multiple Middle East wars for 16 years, and put the American people last.

The West was being designed to fail – as China was being selected. This is due to all the customers it has, and are controlled nicely like sheep by its Totalitarian, money-hungry government. The CCP also BGYs dumb CEOs from Europe to America while debt trapping the rest of the world. Resistance seems futile to these lesser MBA-added sociopaths.

The Endgame After the Steal of Money & Freedoms

There is little solace in seeing this game clearly. The theft of money – look at Afghanistan (a mere $85 Billion) – in military equipment. HOW!?

Easy – it was planned.

The Biden administration is the most corrupt U.S. administration ever assembled. Bar none. It has already committed treason – the aid and comfort of our enemies. But it is just getting started on the “managed decline” of your freedoms. Much of this happens due to the sheer hubris and easy blackmail of Biden’s admin and the D.C. Agencies that screwed over the entire U.S. population because they gained “class consciousness” as author Lee Smith noted.

You, the common folk, will be smeared and blamed as well, as the wokety woke are so psychotic they can’t process this reality. These woke Marxists will be ginned up and set up for the fall.

Any rational forces or voices will be blamed as well – too much capitalism. (A lie.) The fostering of good choices under free markets – by a moral people – came with regulation by anti-trust and anti-competitive laws. These were exploited. Our founders warned of many things – our so-called leaders, ignored all of them, and continued to do so at present.

Climate Change is a fear hustle (and the solutions are not as advertised) – and if the WTO had not given China, carte blanche, or U.S. corporate greed (Democrats and Republicans alike) had stayed away from convenient foreign wars and the equal gutting of manufacturing, well, this piece does not get written at all. [We’d probably be writing about sports or women; or women in sports.]

Common people prior to MASS MEDIA had less inclination to buy things that didn't last. The replacement cycle of things, the market share or new market research was once costly. Propaganda led to consumerism and a myriad of evil narratives huckstered on us all.

Also, given the right palms greased, the briefcase-carrying lobbyist, or the foreign intruder that offers gold, women and information to control immoral schleps in office (Biden, McConnell, Swalwell) to name only a brief few, ends with GLOBAL ELITE defeating yet another group of Sun Tzu-less victims. It was easy – appeal to the immorality. Feed their egos. Tell them their people are the issue, not them.

This time is not any different.

NOVEMBER 2021: Flawless Tangos

“Beep-Beep! Beep-Beep! Yeah!” an appropriate Beatles’ song plays on the car radio amidst the long traffic jam on I-65. On the day before Thanksgiving, an unending trail of cars, minivans, SUVs and semis are piled up like dominos waiting for an unsuspecting push.

This snowstorm started just after noon. Now, at 5 PM, seven inches of fresh, heart attack snow lays packed firmly on the highway without a snowplow in sight. With the thousands of vehicles struggling hopelessly to the far reaches of the Midwest on a holiday eve, and at this juncture, twenty-one miles south of I-80/94, the choices north branch to loved ones in Ohio and Michigan to the east, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota to the west. The snowbound vehicles nearly touch each other in many places along the growing 50-mile-long chain of metal and humanity, and unfortunately, have intermingled too closely in a few spots, like shy, inept dancers stepping on each other’s toes while in a slow waltz for the first time. Neither feels it’s their fault the other can’t dance.

Sam sits with his 2005 Mazda 626 in drive, a glazed-over look on his face. The destination of Minneapolis is likely implausible by 6 AM tomorrow. In coming back home from Indiana University, he has never felt emptier for the fruitlessness of the journey. It’s the final holiday season to drive back from campus in the ‘05 Mazda, that has survived 275,000 miles of abuse and typical college neglect. His folks, now separated, the war over a host of perceived ills – money, politics, the ongoing pandemic paranoia – finally broke their quarter century bond. Sam remembered again his promise to visit his mother first and foremost. Sam tenses at this choice as Debra made the pandemic the straw that broke that bond. Sam watches large flakes pelt the windshield without a foreseeable end.

In the past five years, making his way through a digital technology major via switching from marketing and political science, flunking a few courses, working at Chili’s, tending bar, drinking after work too much, and dating a few intelligent, beautiful, if emotionally-detached from reality, women, who just never worked out, he felt sapped by the time spent, a hollow feeling permeating inside.

The highway equally matched his life. He kept slowly trudging forward; meanwhile, the clouded skies producing a blur of bluster, a delaying deluge of winter dampness. Stuck and swirling and looking for a way out.

His high school friends at other universities, most of them closer to home at the University of Minnesota, will be more difficult to find this holiday. The cock-and-bull stories have waned in excitement and entertainment value from his bright-eyed freshman year when they still all charmed. Sam will still see the old stalwarts: Jim, Tommy P., Jessie, Becca and Hog. They will likely go out to the Mall of America and drink till the closing time of 1AM at the 4th floor, five-dollar-plus-a-head watering holes, if the mayor hasn’t screw that up. Sam will play double-dee for the group, since guilt finally has won out over the binge drinking and frequent blackouts in his final year at school.

They will laugh, dance, toast and horseplay throughout Friday and Saturday night. Hog will moon some old couple while riding shotgun in Tommy P's Ford F 250 on I-494; Jessie will flaunt her perfect chest in a snug red top with ample cleavage exposed, but just to leave some frat guy anxious and excited, yet unfulfilled and broke, as always; Jim and Tommy P. will argue over sports teams past, present and beyond, as they have since 5th grade at Thomas Edison Elementary; and Becka will be Becka. The quiet blonde girl that takes two beers to turn into a bounce-me-off-the-wall and throw-away-the-key, all-night, party girl. Strange how life returns to normalcy for those two nights of the year. Or so it seems to.

In the past ten minutes, the train of cars has moved 500 feet. Mile marker 239 approaches. The Honda ahead is from Iowa. It has been in front of him since Lafayette. The wipers click by in delay mode. His eyes close for a prolonged second under the overcast, snow-filled sky.

"The National Weather Service has issued a blizzard warning for the northern Illinois and northwest Indiana...Twelve to eighteen inches are expected in northwest Indiana and ten to sixteen inches in northern Illinois... Travelers should seek shelter and lodging as soon as possible. Winds will increase throughout the night to forty miles per hour. Temperatures will fall nearing ten degrees with wind chills nearing thirty below. State Road—," Sam pushes in the CD on the player. Damn. He selects a track and the first chords of Pink Floyd's "Wish You Were Here" begins to play.

...We're just two lost souls swimming in a fishbowl,
Year after year,
Running over the same old ground.
What have we found?
The same old fears.
Wish you were here.

Diana peers backward through the rearview mirror for a moment as the rear wiper sweeps off the heavy snow. The handsome guy behind her looks annoyed. Probably heard the dreadful forecast. Only one mile to go, she gratefully thinks. A bit of relief comes in the form of a brief smile. But sadness weighs inside, for others, who have long journeys ahead in the unrelenting snowfall.

Diana hopes Grandma Johnson does not go to too much trouble. She will. As grandmas do. Once again, at Thanksgiving, Diana drives to her new home in Lowell. Her mother and father died a little more than a year ago in a car accident on I-80 heading back from Purdue after dropping off their only child at the dormitory for the start of her freshman fall semester. It's been hard ever since. The last close relative is Mary Johnson. Her once close high school friends are scattered all about and Iowa no longer feels like a home.

The quiet little engineer is what her snobby roommates, Yvette and Maria, at Duhme Hall call her. Toiling away for hours on Calculus, Statics, Thermo, Optics and her blow-off course, Cost Accounting, she is expecting all A's in three weeks, after finals. Then, off to Indianapolis for a mechanical engineering co-op with Altec Industries.

She ponders back to when mom, dad and herself watched the Iowa-Iowa State game and ate homemade pizza; or when dad checked over a '76 MG or the '73 Cadillac Eldorado convertible, while she watched intently over his shoulder the mechanic's magic he applied to every classic vehicle he ever touched. Or Mom dressing her up for Sunday school and church at St. Thomas Aquinas, where she fidgeted and squirmed in her dress in the pews. "Cute as a button," the little old parishioners commented every Sunday in the vestibule, as Diana blushed. Their vacations to the Grand Canyon and quick trips up to Las Vegas afterwards sparkle again in her thoughts, captured in pictures forever kept inside her heart.

A single tear flows down her cheek. More flakes drop on the windshield. A heavy gasp of air from the semi exhales from beside her.

Bump. Bump!!!

She looks over her right shoulder to see that the guy behind her has hit her 2015 Honda Civic. She stops the car, puts it in park, unfastens her seatbelt, and proceeds to get out of the car. He is already out.

"I'm so sorry, I got in a daze and bumped into you," Sam apologizes in a rush. Diana instantly warms to this.

"It's ok. Probably there isn't even a mark," Diana adds.

"Yeah, but I shouldn't be such a goof. I'm from Minnesota and should know better how to drive on this stuff." Sam looks down into Diana's brown eyes and sees true innocence and striking beauty in just a glance.

"Well, I used to be from Iowa, but I still can't get the hang of snow driving. First snow, anyways. You know how people are, they forget after seven months without it," Diana tilts her head up slightly towards Sam and feels something too.

"Maybe you're right." Then, they both glance awkwardly down at the bumper that has a softball size dent in it.

Sam hesitates, then says, "I feel so bad. Hey, I could buy you a cup of coffee at the next exit and we can handle this?"

"I am getting off there anyways," Diana says.

"I thought you were from Iowa?"

"I was. My folks passed away—"

"Oh, I'm sorry—"

“Hey! Lovebirds!” A rude middle-aged man yells from behind Sam’s car. “Move your ass! The highway is already a winter fucked-up wonderland!” He revs the engine in park on a 15’ red Corvette, while the window shoots up.

“Ok, Ok,” Sam places his hand out in an easy-does-it manner to the old prick. Diana looks over at the angry man with a small bit of contempt painted on her face, but then turns back to Sam, unflustered, once again.

“Well, I’ll meet you at the next exit. There’s a Grandma’s close by to the right.”

“Sure, I’ll be there. You don’t have to pay for a thing. I’ll take care of you.”

Diana blushes slightly, “You will?” Sam stumbles out, “I mean—”

“I know what you meant.” she smiles.

“What’s your name?”

“Diana.”

They shake hands for a prolonged second. The snowflakes seem to stand still. A piece of the hidden sun’s final rays finds the interstate around them in an icy spotlight. The remaining souls sit in limbo, while they proceed onward.

They both head back to their cars and make the long journey one mile down the interstate. It takes twenty minutes to drive to Grandma’s restaurant.

In the nine hours of chatting at the restaurant, many things are decided forever by the couple. A future planned via an interstate mambo on snow. The blizzard, the holiday blues, the loneliness and the fears vanish under a cup of Joe or two bought for Diana Johnson Walker by Sam Walker.

And all the snow and the growing wind on a jammed interstate dance floor could not stop their flawless tangos over the next 68 years.

NOVEMBER 2021: Join Millennials In Fighting The Void

Money Circus, at Substack, wrote Join Millennials in Fighting The Void recently<sup>60</sup> about the emptiness of the mind and soul regarding a generation that has slowly lost touch with our reality – a physical and often painful daily fight – to instead, shifting their activities into demeaning actions and amoral quests that they do not even fully understand. What is missing from this excellent piece is the causations of this voiding of humanity. Placing blame on any one thing would be an oversimplification, as it is certainly a convergence, particularly of: social media, education, and family breakdown, supported gleefully by billionaires and politicians around the world that utilized these now destabilizing forces to get us to the present, Great Reset upheaval.

Social Media

Social media is the dopamine drip that a Pavlovian Millennial quenches their thirst with; as it substitutes for love, goals, and man's search for meaning. This façade was the ubiquity of the internet, which older Millennials (1982) gobbled up as teenagers in the 1990s, hamstringing their bonding to a friends locally, and hobbling them as they reached their majority, attending college by 2000. Then, 9/11 happened. A shock that certainly delineates the world from a secure state of being and goals at the front of one's mind, and the post-9/11 propaganda bogeyman among us (foreign and domestic) that seeded further nihilistic fear of what would happen next. That next was: the Great Recession, impacting the lives of younger Millennials (1990+) either in their first jobs being axed or their families torn apart by losses from foreclosures to divorces. This further sabotaged the meaning these young people need – we all need. Social media, an infant in 2005 – became that outlet for the 15-23 year old minds – and thereafter, a handy coping mechanism, an addiction, as sure as crack cocaine for the Wall Street psychopaths, came to be the drug of choice for Millennials.

Sam Vaknin, an Israeli psychologist (and known for his own struggles), noted:

“It is a psychopathic landscape. Devoid of empathy, connectiveness, emotions, meaningful sex, devoid of meaning at all. Rates of anxiety and depression in these age groups have quintupled and this was three years before the pandemic. And we know the pandemic has tripled the rate. Forty million people in the U.S. alone are constantly drunk. More than half of young people binge drink to blackout every week. None of them is excited by the future. They are walking dead.”<sup>61</sup>

Education

If the social media bug didn't poison enough, the education system, the quest for drones and dumbed-down dropouts hooked on Netflix, has done in this generational cohort as well. The educational standards have youth thinking that their indoctrinated minds, focused on frivolities and 400-year old inquiries, have only one answer – Activism! – that merely serves their billionaire masters destructive plans. Sloganeering and propaganda has infected academia – social justice, a moniker of Marxist preachiness. The K-16 teachers and professors ridicule people, of any stripe, but mainly white men, for not perfecting the world for them by 2020. So, these unwise and God-forsaking souls, say, “Destroy it all in the name of unity!” The youth, never trained to question, but for their gender, race, or religion, as those things are highly important to discuss 24-7, but never to a personal resolution, also deify people with millions of “followers”, not for their sound ideas, but for their sexual appearance, their lavish lifestyles, or their social activism rhetoric that mirrors their blue-haired professor’s linguistic tricks in Creative Writing 666.

Quoting Vaknin in a passage from this Money Circus Substack:

“Dystopia is here. It’s the reality of these young people. This is not a value judgement. It’s not what they do, it’s how they do it. They are sleep walking, sedated. They participate in all the right victimhood movements and they spew out the slogans and they march but even this feels very fake, narcissistic, imitative: it’s mimicry. It’s a spectacle, made for the media. It’s like Game of Thrones.

I can’t find a single point of light in this picture. Even the levels of literacy have collapsed. About 40 per cent of this generation cannot read a label on a bottle. About 50 per cent have never read a book. Forget books, what do they do? They play video games for five hours. Rest. Surf the internet. Do they educate themselves? No. Their head is filled with trash. It’s terrifying. If this is the custodian of the future of the human species, it is terrifying.”<sup>62</sup> [My emphasis.]

Family Breakdown

Nothing more corrosive, and a well-tested method to destroy societies (see Bolshevik-led USSR in the 1920s), than to decouple men and women and their children through quickie divorces and the degrading of the emotional bonds of marriage. From The Atlantic magazine in 1926:

“When the Bolsheviks came into power in 1917 they regarded the family, like every other ‘bourgeois’ institution, with fierce hatred, and set out with a will to destroy it. ‘To clear the family out of the accumulated dust of the ages we had to give it a good shakeup, and we did,’ declared Madame Smidovich, a leading Communist and active participant in the recent discussion.”<sup>63</sup>

Since the 1960s, the divorce rate in the United States has climbed like a Saturn V rocket into a toxic relationship atmosphere. These were much lower prior to California’s no-fault divorce (1969) and second wave feminism launching off Betty Friedan’s Feminine Mystique diatribe. Hollywood applauded this – lauded this – after first seriously framing this in movies like Kramer v. Kramer. Now, there is barely a show on TV, that doesn’t snicker at the dumb male, a weak resource provider, while portraying women as know-it-alls and do-it-all, which the Millennials have grown to expect as it is the propaganda norm of relationships that happen to stay together. Meanwhile, the out-of-wedlock birth rates are 40% on average, higher if one looks at a breakdown by race. But for the Millennials, this seeded the ignoring of forming bonds, emotional vulnerability, and the risk of getting hurt, versus a stable, healthy, and humanity prolonging action. That of pair-bonding versus the ancient and destructive practices of harems and polygamy that served the most domineering male and the submissive enslaved lot of females. The Millennial children, many unknown to their fathers that provided the seed, were raised, without a father, at either the singular desires of their mothers or through the unwitting con ran by NGOs/Government agents alike. In a final quote that echoes the ethos of the mid-life crisis approaching Millennials:

“They laugh at me when I say sex always has an emotional aspect because of hormones. Or when I say relationships are important — they say relationships always end badly; better not to have them. Or when I say read, they ask, why? Everything we thought before, is now obsolete because of this transition to action.

Action is always goal-oriented, however unimportant the goal. Action rarely involves overt emotions or empathy. It is very self-centered. When you act, you act and then you act upon someone else. You objectify the other person. In an age where only action matters, where feelings are a threat because they always result in pain, where communication has been rendered virtual, where other people are avatars on Tinder, the basic components of the mind — cognition, emotion, empathy, object relations — are inactivated.”<sup>64</sup>

The Future?

One has no crystal ball. The answers lie within the minds fueled by ideas that still exist on personal interaction, seeking knowledge, forming bonds that continue the human race wisely. There are many who have found their meaning in the darkest places on this Earth. The depths of which no writer in the 21st century can adequately describe unless they have lived through atrocities like Viktor Frankl did in the 1940s. Frankl’s story may provide meaning – if a youthful spirit seeks to access it – instead of their phone, to schedule a Tinder, or send 3 emoticons to a pal met on Reddit or Twitter. The education of their mind can only be found through basic retraining of responses to any stimuli, ignoring the worse purveyors of propaganda and deceit wrapped in a package of glitz and glam. Today’s march toward a Great Reset benefits the vulgarity of a viscous “elitist” class that exploits each person and steals their joy each and every single day. Don’t let them Millennials. Don’t let them Gen Xers. Stop them Gen Z! And awaken Boomers – remember how you hated The Man? Well this MAN has all of us commoners in the crosshairs with their political and bureaucratic minions pushing a needle of hate, an injection of fear, a poison fluid that will kill the future for all mankind.

“Love is the only way to grasp another human being in the innermost core of his personality. No one can become fully aware of the very essence of another human being unless he loves him. By his love he is enabled to see the essential traits and features in the beloved person; and even more, he sees that which is potential in him, which is not yet actualized but yet ought to be actualized. Furthermore, by his love, the loving person enables the beloved person to actualize these potentialities. By making him aware of what he can be and of what he should become, he makes these potentialities come true.” – Viktor E. Frankl, Man’s Search for Meaning<sup>65</sup>

DECEMBER 2021: A Desire Message On The State Of Humanity

The holiday season is often defined by our pasts. The way our families, friends and people of importance either succeeded or failed to meet some expectation or hope one may of had. This often carries forward for years and years, trying to recoup our failed expectations in gestures or some worthy apology for those temporary shortcomings. This is an understandable human condition: let down. However, we can't base our realities on things that can't be changed ever. We don't have a time machine or ways to "fix" certain people. Apologies are nice and commendable – but we know some people will never receive these very well. And these non-receivers often will grow up with a black heart...and ideas.

First, a positive reality is: every day is a worthy celebration of our existence. Our frail insignificance to the grandness of the entire universe where we are but a mere speck in time, in a temporary Earthly realm, that we happen to inhabit as its "most free" beings, in theory. Many forget that God – and the miracle of our lives and the ability of our species to continue forward relies on our ability to give and receive blessings as they come about. But many don't see the world this way. They don't even know how to discern blessings – and realize the search for meaning is a quest never-ending and is not monopolize by them in the slightest.

They are either too logical (God is not at hand, their constant need to be convinced) or too emotional (the stirring up of drama to suit their ticks and fears to no one's benefit). They fail to grasp what their limitations are – and the acceptance of them. They fail to grasp it is not all about them. They fail to grasp that the temporary gift of life is freeing, not restraining, at all. Do what improves one's self and enjoy people – not about the control of what humanity does throughout a day, or during a holiday like Christmas. They dislike tradition – seeing that as con or contrivance to also contort and control as well. AND that is their issue: control and knowing they don't have it. Such is the quagmire of their hearts and souls. They are as empty as a desert, years from rain ever coming to pass.

On the more uplifting side, we have people in history who have suffered and died; and yet, found grace and provided eternal gifts to others, in just mere moments. This outstrips what any billionaire can buy, or any Royal, with their entire kingdom, can ever defeat. The Common People know them by their works – and they also excuse them as well for their human errors made along the way. People across time find hope in these memorable souls that spread good cheer, hopeful messages, and rallied humanity in its most dire times, without money or title to support their endeavors. These are a rarity – and growing rarer, it appears, in 2021. But one never knows...

At this time of year, we must find ways to SPREAD good cheer, hope, and happiness in the human condition, even as we fight everyday amongst ourselves. Often, just about meager and temporary pains that amount to nothing of consequence in the long run. (A certain group causes a vast majority of pains in this world – and they do so, either on purpose or because they “know not what they do.”) While the Christmas Season should be a cessation of this – it often just heightens the problem. And thus the perpetual cycle we fight and flounder in.

But We are now in a different era as well. Not by our general desires to evolve into that obviously – we didn’t select these responses of the last two years. More like being dragged, kicking and screaming, into a dystopia that ignores Christmas, Christ, and fosters fear and forgetfulness of the better spirits and human desires to be left in peace. This is apparent to a growing contention of us that sees that “certain group” revealing, yet again, they want to seek to fix all the past (often by erasing it from books to the internet) and replacing it with their control mechanisms for the rest of humanity, permanently.

THIS INDEED puts of all of us in grave danger and dire circumstances. This certain group has no use for traditions or humanity’s grace, giving, or our forgiving natures. The group is uniquely pathological in their desires to strip humanity of its memories, its better natures, and replace them, with an ever-raging conflict that will keep this controlling group above the fray, while chaos destroys the human condition at an ever-escalating pace. This is evil. It is not a discussion to say it is otherwise. (Or certainly not one I will entertain further here.)

The trick the group incorporates is to guise all their messaging in “health” and “humanitarian” packaging, wrapping it with the finest paper, but the veneer is exactly that: thin paper. Once unwrapped, it reveals not even a useful lump of coal, but is just an empty blackhole, a heartless plan, based in hate, anger, and a transhumanistic pretense.

This group of course does not see it that way. The amount of self-delusion is beyond all but the most powerful in station and mind. They use their monies, their propaganda, their connections, and they planned. And planned some more. They love planning – and then, boom! Released their trap onto humanity.

They’ve told us all of this in their meager scribbles about their desires to reshape humanity and the world. Calling it a 4th industrial revolution, echoing in succession, a prior pathological desire for a thousand-year rule. Such claptrap was born from a cold place close to the nexus at the cusp of the Second World War. Echoes are visible from this, and a host of other certain group members, as they know each other well by their ongoing, nefarious deeds. They sought and obtained power, and hid their manipulations well, using underlings, a network, equally disparaging of the human condition. You know them as prime ministers, presidents, chief health officers, financial heads at “world” organizations, state governors, media empire owners and talking heads, CEOs, and operators of NGO behemoths.

Their boots seek to hit your neck, over and over again, for all the pain and suffering they feel you are guilty of (projection), as you are “hurting Mother Earth,” and causing the “climate catastrophe to come!” All the messaging about a planet to be dead by 2030 or 2050 if they “don’t do something” to curb your existence, your way of life. Extinguishing it – as they overtly desire, but just pick more tolerable words to say that, deploying divide-and-conquer tactics, and now, the demonization of those that will not comply with their wills, their transhumanistic agenda wrapped in COVID, climate and chaos, most of all.

The certain group wants the anti-present of revenge. It certainly is on their wish list somewhere. Along with power, control, submission, entertainment, pain, humiliation, and greed. Their plan WILL NEVER build back better. Their plan WILL NEVER reset the world to a better end. If someone believes otherwise, they need to examine why, “they know not what they do.”

The Savior in this malevolent plan, or saviors, are US that know that the power of humanity nearly united against these pathological forces, with a distinct obsession with us, cannot be allowed to win. We cannot obey their orders. We cannot yield any further. We must protest vigorously, as if our lives depend on it. They do – in actuality.

The CONTROL this group wants (vaccines, boosters, passports, movements, and wealth extraction via business closures) are just the beginning. The 3rd iteration of this master plan started there as well. Many a confused soul has dismissed this because they either: cognitively can't figure this out, or will dismiss it as, “this can't happen again.” Well, others disagree quite significantly.

The conclusion of this story is yet to be written. We are really just in Chapter 1. But the foreshadowing phase is nearly done. Many don't see the foreboding path ahead because it seems so foreign, so odd, yet history is replete with examples of how tyranny is imposed. The key fault is in labeling it politically – calling it left or right – which is debatable and simplistic for those that love that debate along those various axes which tyranny lies ahead. Tyranny's flavors end in the same miseries for all. In the end, they are all as empty as a Christmas stocking under the dark boots of these tyrants.

The Chapters ahead will be tragic, dangerous, appalling, revealing, and yet, humanity has WON some battle to push the certain group back into their shallow, inhuman pile of nihilism and their malevolent musings go back inside their heads for awhile. (We never seem to eliminate this threat completely though (psychopathy), and thus the repetitive nature of humans toiling against these forces.)

But that's for God to settle the final score on – whether on Earth, or in the hereafter. That ultimate mercy too is unto God, and we can only offer such mercies humanely, when possible, but we are but human.

Our goal is to fight for the freedom and liberties of all and allow culture to thrive and give the gift of insight and better days, every day, ahead. May that Chapter be written soon enough for all who fight against the tyranny.

That is my ultimate wish for the years ahead for those not a part of that certain group:

Peace on Earth & Good Will Towards Men.

JANUARY 2022: Echoes of God in the Ongoing Struggles of Mankind

Past Formation

The recent two years were echoes for many of us. Echoes that we struggled to forget; and often, the blur of time was the most soothing mechanism found and deemed the most potent cure seen from the here and now. I speak of abuse. For some of us, this was a daily thing that happened twenty, thirty or more years prior. Mine took place in the early 1980s in a dusty town in Tennessee where the release of a virus, a violent one, occurred in July 1982, and soon infected the household to its irreparable and complete destruction. That viral impact, a plague of propaganda, gaslighting, love bombing, violent threats, and empty promises of it ending soon took hold for the next eleven months. It was driven by one malevolent son of a bitch to make one fearful, compliant, susceptible to messaging (from The Bible in this scenario), and “usable” to also control one’s mom through triangulating me to impact her decision-making. The tactic failed as she escaped Tennessee, first without me; and then later, I was deemed useless to his psychopathic ends and I joined my mom in June 1983.

This was an attempt at Stockholm Syndrome deployed against me to impact one’s mother. My father should have been someone easy to sympathize with, he wasn’t, in the totality. I had witnessed a horrible event in July 1982 – and was even asked by him to kill him – only to spared him as my mom, beaten, blooded, and battered, was by my observation, acceptable to that end for him. Thereafter, the events went through were a psychological hell that is not as clear as I can state here. It was not hard to realize that to keep my mom and myself alive, I needed to become good or competent enough at telling my father what he wanted to hear, lying, for self-preservation. And succeeded well enough to still be here to write about it.

I did, briefly, at age 10, fall prey to my father. He would butter me up – praise me for my scores on standardized tests (99% percentile on Math, yeah!) and then make some proselytizing proclamation, usually from Revelation, to also make me afraid of things to come. He obsessed over my mom in ways no healthy mind would or should through communication schemes (calling, writing, relaying messages through me) to get the object (my mom) on board. If it seems intentional in hindsight, well, I didn't get this Stockholman analysis until long past the time people go to college for psychology or such pursuits in that complex field. Rather, I came to this revelation in my early-mid 40s, just a couple years prior to the beginning of this “pandemic.”

Present Formation

I quote “pandemic” because the goal of this recent health scare is not about enduring and surviving a virus, with known therapeutic treatments (healing paths) that are available, cheap, and tested for many years, if not decades, across billions of interactions as Drs. McCullough and Zelenko presented<sup>66</sup>, tested, and fought valiantly to disperse. Instead, no matter how one positions the argument on Covid's origin, release, or magnitude of its impact, the STATE POWER decided that a vaccination path was the only and best option, ignoring the long duration to develop them, how untested these were, and the lack of safety testing in the long-term. No one in my cohort (40-49) has ever had an mRNA vaccine in their lifetimes as both Pfizer and Moderna bases their “therapies” on. Why would one accept them now, made inside of a year (2020), while AIDs, which was all people in the 1980s talked of, has no approved vaccines. (Instead, a cornucopia of variations of highly expensive drugs (Remdesivir, Lopinavir) are used to control that immune deficiency syndrome, echoing some studies<sup>67</sup> regarding this virus's vaccine causing a weakening of one's immune system.)

It was not as hard to see, or rather, surmise, this time, a goal or agenda has been set to alter society's behaviors, accept surveillance through such “vaccines” and “passports”, while also rolling out a pre-existing plan, the Great Reset, or Build Back Better, as a brainwashing scheme towards some Agenda that is a mix of control and powershifting in Western Society writ large. The same Stockholm-like captive state – arbitrary lockdowns, masks, psychological war through media messaging – made this visible to me as far back as April 2020. However, more to come on the precise term regarding this blender of confusion for the masses.

The politics of the Western World are subverted now by a Socialist monster cum Communistic & Authoritarian tendencies. This is what the congealed powers of MNC corporations, big media, big government agencies and big tech are harbingering for our world's future. This is the World Economic Forum's vision – less ownership, by you, more ownership by their aligned, behemoth management companies (BlackRock, Vanguard, State Street)<sup>68</sup> that decide where and what you are allowed to do under the guise of “Health, Safety & Security” measures. These aligned powers want to remove your Civil Rights to speak freely, defend yourself, have due process – as they have in Europe, Australia and Canada rather easily – and now, the United States is the last man teetering. These powerful institutions sell this nasty gumbo of Totalitarian-slanted propositions with a fancy scientism spin, buttressed by technological futures (still in prototype) and climate change black-white talk (Earth-ending fear with paternalistic love bombing) to get their most guilt-and-anxiety-riddled on board with this political trajectory without any pushback allowed. Their globalist scientists offer universal and human-tied solutions (Web 3.0, AI, CRISPR, transhumanist progressions, one-world techno-currency, and embedded & interfacing tracking) that are rarely mentioned without the happiest stances towards it. Any health initiative – is an infiltration and psychological manipulation method: get one scared and fearful enough of such viruses, so a mass of humanity will gladly submit their rights to these hustlers of technological snake oil. And this is where the two parts – my prior experiences and the present day – connect into this massive agenda.

Mass Formation

This term was not unusual or understudied by the psychological community<sup>69</sup> though the congealed, Globalist psychopaths have directed their power to contact Google, AP, or Reuters to routinely scrub or pump out deflection information that the “mass formed” or paid-for “crisis actors” can twist up like flying monkeys from The Wizard of Oz. This is not the first medical disinformation campaign seen during Covid-19. Information control campaigns such as: vaccine definitions from the WHO were routinely manipulated, hydroxychloroquine was labeled dangerous, and Nobel Prize winning Ivermectin was deemed merely a “horse medication.” Those are just minimal, if important, examples – as the CDC recently admitted over 75% of COVID-related deaths died with four or more comorbidities<sup>70</sup>, something again known as far back as mid-2020 by this author. Those that want more mandates and lockdowns that destroy economies and starve people through the global supply chain breakdown, have achieved the baseline characteristics that Mattias Desmet's Mass Formation hypothesis discussed<sup>71</sup> here shows.

His claim rests on these four pillars or pre-existing conditions:

1. Social Isolation
2. Lack of Meaning
3. Free floating anxiety
4. Free floating frustration and aggression

Social isolation is obviously tied to both pre-existing conditions in social media (a rather toxic landscape), and separating people from each other long prior to this COVID19 event kicking off. Desmet noticed this isolation (as did the U.S. Surgeon General and The Atlantic<sup>72</sup>) and this ties to key, destructive hallmarks of COVID-19 protocols: lockdowns and social distancing. Thus, dividing people even further into forced isolation camps and reinforcing echo chambers that exist in the government-big tech controlled social media. [Divide and conquer is a well-known military tactic.]

Lack of meaning is tied into social isolation and workplace accomplishments (65% people believe their jobs are without meaning). The very few people (13%) who would find meaning in their work, small business owners, for example, were told to shut down during COVID and immediately labeled "non-essential." This would increase such meaningless thinking, and little reported are the correlated rises in suicides, and in concert, depressed thoughts and harm to children, disruptive masking and "mass formed" teachers, worldwide.

Free floating anxiety, frustration and aggression can be summarized in the United States by the media's fear narratives, mask wearing, and consistent pushing of racial agendas by these Globalist actors through agencies, foundations, and corporations. The population has seen epic rises in crime<sup>73</sup> – Chicago – putting non-aggressors in perpetual states of free-floating anxiety. The continuing reliance on “Technocrats” as the sole arbiters of truth on this virus has created a mass (a specific group) that are not able to process any new information. The Mass Formation finds only ONE OBJECT (the virus) to focus obsessively on, to the divorcing, or discarding, of all else in their life. This has been called an almost “hypnotized” state of being.

Naomi Wolf expertly provides insight into this new information paralysis in her piece:

“The rest of the world, at least on the progressive side in the United States, became increasingly cult-like and insular in its thinking, since March of 2020. As the months passed, friends and colleagues of mine who were highly educated, and who had been lifelong critical thinkers, journalists, editors, researchers, doctors, philanthropists, teachers, psychologists — all began to repeat only talking points from MSNBC and CNN, and soon overtly refused to look at any sources - even peer-reviewed sources in medical journals — even CDC data — that contradicted those talking points. These people literally said to me, “I don’t want to see that; don’t show it to me.” It became clear soon enough that if they absorbed information contradictory to “the narrative” that was consolidating, they risked losing social status, maybe even jobs; doors would close, opportunities would be lost. One well-educated woman told me she did not want to see any unsanctioned information because she was afraid of being disinvited from her bridge group. Hence the refrain: “I don’t want to see that; don’t show it to me.”

One need not be a clinical psychologist to notice the hallmarks of social problems and their escalating deadly outcomes. However, it is critical to label and put in historical context these mass formation events (Hitler’s Nazi Rise, Mao’s Cultural Revolution, Stalin’s Communist Kulak 5-Year Plans). Because each of those nightmares had catastrophic world-altering consequences. Millions died through evil mechanisms with a Godless anxiety misdirected at the other. Thus, we must identified this problem and reversed it, before it’s too late.

Mass Solution

I am not the purveyor of medical solutions without some basis on them in reality and some deep analysis from one’s usage or sense they will improve one’s life. It is obvious, to me, that we are in EXTRAORDINARY TIMES. I cannot stress how difficult this time ahead will be. Others know that as well and have been trying urgently to shake awake the populace. And the receipts below show the American People know something is “very, very wrong with us,” but we also know: one too can change this disastrous course. There are stepwise ways to coalesce towards a better outcome, taken from the hallmarks of the non-aggression principle. Mattias offers as his prescriptions as:

1. Speak Out
2. Connect
3. Think About a New Normal
4. Non-Aggressive

Speak

The political fires have been burning so hot due to the divide-and-conquer media and their Geppettoing Masters of the Universe, who deflect from their gross sins, economic (and more personal) ones, for the last two plus decades in the United States. Using Cultural Marxism subversions, Big Data gathering web manipulations and The Patriot Act invasion of privacy overreaches, to create conflicts on U.S. soil, all have been quite unsuccessful the vast majority of the time, but damaging, nonetheless. The American People were better than all “their leaders.” These financial interests hated that violent crime went down (until 2020), while the focus on their windfall profits went up (both here and overseas), thus provoking these billionaire-level parasites to stoke cultural and verbal squabbles on the internet, and exploitable, through their bought media whores. If one U.S. Agency is additionally to blame, the FBI is certainly on that short list, along with their international brethren, the CIA. January 6th is used to shift focus away from the 1/6 FBI sins<sup>74</sup> – as legacy media and Democrats/Republicans (in DC) love to declare U.S. Citizens “domestic terrorists.”

Wonder why that is.

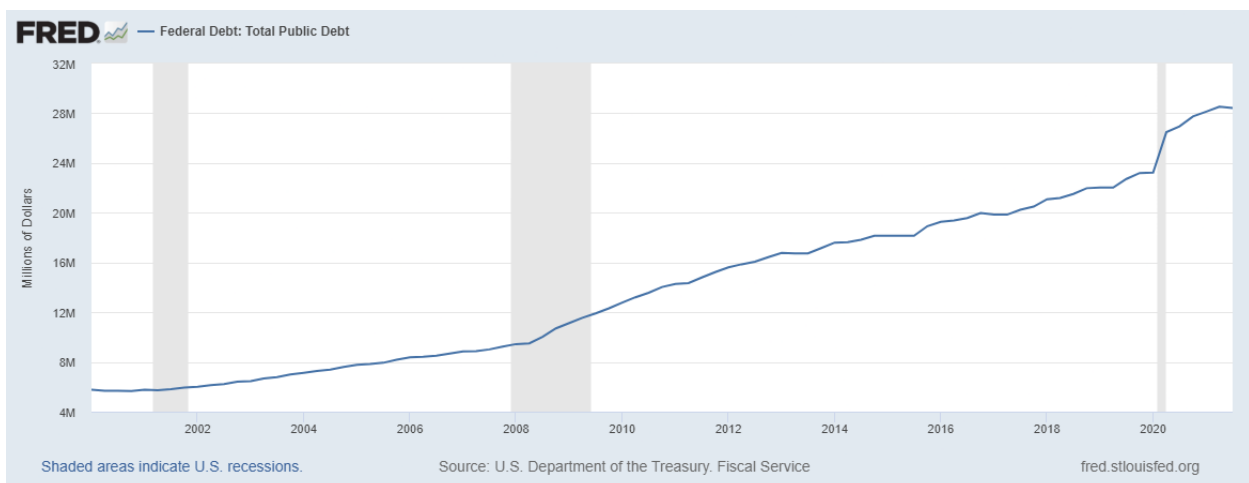

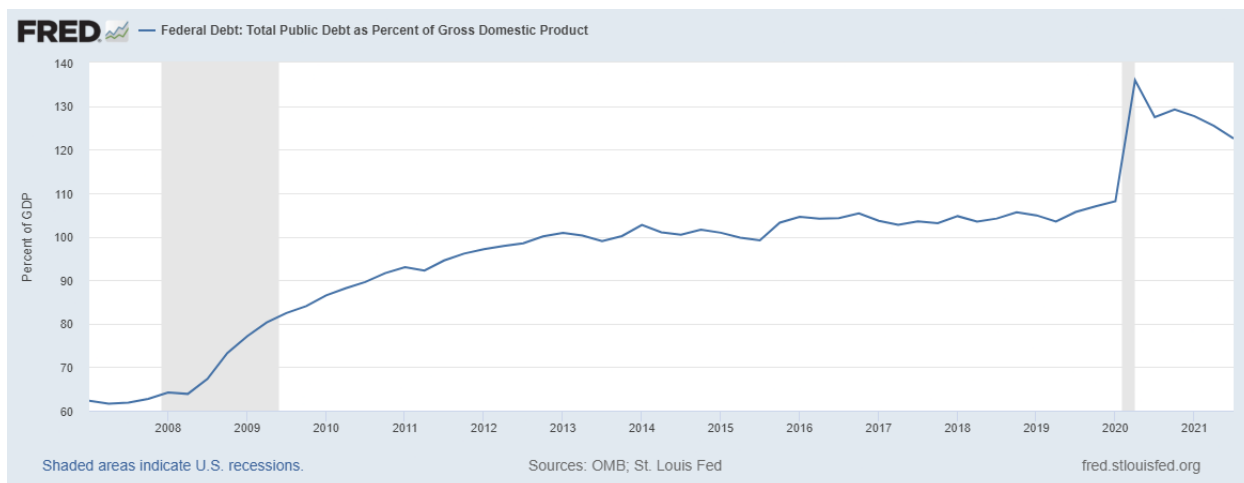

As people spoke out, the new administration needed a new bogeyman to keep a group paralyzed in Mass Formation. To believe further the Technocrats that “democracy” is “under attack.” Quite insidious is the level of malevolence from these well-paid people<sup>75</sup> that scarcely leave their big city high rises or D.C. government offices to talk to the average U.S. Midwesterner, Southerner, or Westerner. While there are fringy types in any political landscape, just how much blame can one shift on those without any power?

notes added by charles hugh smith www.oftwominds.com August 26, 2021

The U.S. government put the country nearly $30 trillion in debt – 24+ in the last twenty-two years – while telling them they are also racist, uninformed, backward on their rights of speech and guns, and should trust a federal government that spies on them, lies directly to them (on two wars costing many trillions and 500,000 plus lives lost on both sides), and also thinks they are unworthy of consulting on matters of their health, finances, or individual liberties. Why do the people keep them in power? Why give them any more power? Did we actually ever put them in power?

This is why speaking out is now a patriotic duty. The constant spin and media propaganda is to gin up the worst fears over COVID, Racism, Extremist Violence \(on political right\) and anything that can be packaged to get people scared.<sup>76</sup> And kept that way. COVID differential perspectives are driven by location – city versus rural areas, which overlap with their political precepts: more liberal voters versus more conservative ones. Large “blue” cities intertwined with largest media markets owned by the largest media properties, largest universities, largest MNC corporations (tech, pharma, most tellingly) that have huge influences on the populations they serve, employ, and also, ignore them as well. The rural “red” people get their information in alternative ways – including self-research, online conservative media, or even ignoring this health problem altogether. As one reflected (Bill Maher did<sup>77</sup>), the conservatives have a lesser magnitude of fear – and a much closer proximation of the risks level of Covid19, and moreover: have achieved less COVID% of death in their county/political districts.

From the chart above, accounting for most of the United States population, Democrat counties (52% or more in 2016) versus Republican (Less than 48% D) were analyzed. The reason: COVID was diagnosed or listed as involved in the cause of death at higher rates in 248 Democrat counties. Meanwhile, more people died in Republican districts in total (1582), garnering a higher death %. The chart above measures Death of Pop % against 54 weeks, therefore, that percentage rate is not normalized. (CDC archive = 347,131.)

So why is there such a discrepancy in the care of COVID-19? Democrats operate urban localities, with better hospitals (or at least greater access), so how is it they are able to achieve much better mortality outcomes, yet failed miserably on a flu virus compared to their rural counterparts?

The other fear mongering tactics are just ways one knows to keep people in a learned helplessness state – as the “Technocrats” are feeding this up throughout their platforms and sites. And likely, these elite-owned Pinocchios will create a false flag event to further gin up support for yet another “war” on an object of “fear.” (Recent weeks show Russia & China aggressions. Biden’s DOJ forming a new domestic terrorist unit on 1/11/22 as Dr. Fauci mentions himself being threatened.) One has to figure this out (know the truth and deception methods alike) before step two can be addressed. [Edit: Ukraine became the new Biden administrative narrative as the CDC plans to stop tracking previous day COVID deaths.]

Connect

No one can take a firehose of information given the times. The tweets and short attention span are united, sadly. The best one can do is develop a way to slowly build rapport with those in the state of Mass Formation. Offer them condolences. Find a point of agreement on alternative matters. Build a true friendship. If a door opens from the past, don’t reject them – if the disagreement was over COVID or COVID-related events. (Some people exist to exploit panics for initiatives that are not based in wholesomeness. Leave those doors closed that may upset one’s ability to survive during this sinister plan.)

Slowly build through personal connecting to them. Information shared without commenting – if they are interested (open minded, generally). This too takes time.

Normal

This is my hypothesis and not the good psychologist’s ideas or stated path. The normal that our GLOBAL MASTERS want is not what we want. The normal the MASS FORMATION want is not the normal of the past. It is one’s contention the NORMAL should be an individualized and a social good (meaningful work or ability that can be improved on to find a niche providing “status”) that these people can find attractive; and also, destressing from all media enticements and accompanying aggravations. Therein, lies the problem – MASS FORMATION bought the MEDIA NARRATIVE. They may be continually triggered by certain words (and certain people), especially those that are the most political amongst us.

One need not go further (on those words) but to say: stay clear of this “word path” in the short term. Decide immediately how to approach conversations. Figure out which of these word buttons will push a person away.

[NOTE: The MEDIA & THEIR ILK knew they could create a MASS FORMATION possible event. They almost counted on this, one contends. Remember the linguistics of the Pandemic: The New Normal. We can’t go back to normal. The Great Reset. This was intentional and programming from the highest levels of government and financial sectors. Psychological and informational warfare tactics – in a 21st century military machine that understands their prey, their data, their weakness, and their trigger points. The Technocrats are not friendly allies; rather they are conduits to your enslavement. And one pays their salaries with our taxes sent to the government.]

Non-Aggression

This is simple, but yet so vital: the MASS FORMATION feels aggrieved over a host of issues, not just COVID. The free-floating nature of anxiety and frustration makes this a certainty. The more media engages in pushing extreme responses, labeling and otherizing, the more the mass formation people will snap, if given the opportunity, and the media will justify their behaviors.

Therefore, one must remain calm and be able to de-escalate the most insidious plan operating in human history.

One cannot say this enough: we are at a crossroads, whether by our own making or not, it is here. And very few are going to be able to grasp the grander implications (the term “conspiracy theorist” is a way to dismiss this discussion) as financial implosions, social chaos, medically-enforced tyranny, and transhumanism-to-AI attempts are done to break the entire Western World:

All. At. Once.

Even being aware of this knocking at the door, is not at all a pleasant knowledge to have. It is not just me that knows I can't go back to a simpler time and forget the futuristic, techno-communist government rapping harder at my door that brings me back to that scared kid, age ten, in July 1982, when my father did the rapping.

At times, this is like Jesus's trial in the desert. The temptations to avoid – because this is a test of personal will – require resisting technological temptations that these globalist forces offer up like candy. To see now, if I can be a leader, even as flawed and mediocre as this nearly fifty-year-old industrial engineer and writer is. And also: be a better son to a mother who left this Earthly place way too early. She would help me understand this better. The Wisdom of The Bible is to draw strength from our greatest adversities and defeat our greatest adversaries. There is no flawed humanity without the ability to rise to such challenges and give one's last breath to this challenge of becoming that better man or woman. It makes no difference what you were – in fact, it only matters what you are, now, and how much fight is left in those bones and marrow coiling through a fragile skin and pumping energy into God's most complex entity, owned by you: the human mind.

The final form of humanity's trek is yet to come. May we each give our final breaths in its greatest measure, in this fight, just begun, to walk proudly with God.

JULY 2022: The Price of Liberty Is To Remain Forever Vigilant

We, as People, rarely provide for the freedom we have so adored over the last 240 years. That in those twelve scores of time did see people fight for, and die, to give others, their freedoms; not without setbacks, or subversions, but a never-ending competition to maintain, what those freedoms truly are, at their zenith. The arguments about the past lacking a totality of liberty measures, for all, forgets that: no one was actually much free to do anything under the Powers of the European Monarchs and The Papacy.

The first step in all endeavors is untether from forces that no longer have your particular interests at heart. Yet, it takes a steel, a fortitude, a special kind of bravery to first contemplate; then act; and more valiantly, and serendipitously, succeed in that glorious action. The Founders, whether you accept them as men of character, or debase them down to self-interested, had more guts and gumption than any men, or women, or transgender<sup>79</sup>, in the United States today. The Founders faced, and many did, hangings and pennilessness, as the outcome of their overt acts.

Who in America today will die for their rights to speak freely; maintain arms; seek redress of grievances; afford due process to all; keep at bay foreign adversaries; seek not foreign entanglements; afford liberty and commerce to all; and votes to those vested in the success of this Great Experiment?

One hears the groans from the Hegelian-minded that of “exploitative of resources,” while smearing anyone that dared to fight (or act) to create anything of value. Those weak-willed creatures that covet that which they do not have; and presume all is merely a convenience of inheritance by a selected few. Such is the narrow-minded thoughts brought by the foreign adversaries we once escaped. The subversion of an Open Society that lost its values, not due to its Common People’s lacking them, but rather: a homegrown Aristocracy that adopted the subverting poisons of our long-ago Cousins and the Modern Eastern enemies.

These subversions never ceased after Independence. Those Cousin-ed enemies tried to divide us barely a score after birth with foreign entanglements. Thereafter, the flaw of slavery’s existence made for a two-score argument until enough blood was shed to make that Constitutional correction in that original blight during our Fourth Score. Again, our British Cousins were heavily involved.

By the turn of the next century, our commerce provided the world's goods and an introduction as well to our reveling spirits and opportunities. Nevertheless, ill-designing men carried forth a rash of legislation to attach Our Purse to International Interests<sup>80,81</sup>; while as well, offering inharmonious values from Our Cousins on the Continent. Those Cousins soon financed up bloodthirsty radicals for War, and Revolution, to the death of millions of their own Common People. It was too, an Aristocracy, not the Common People, that fomented our country's entry into Two World Wars. Of which, one was justly, of our gravest concern, even as that, as well, was premeditated by a desirous administration in Washington, D.C.

The issues thereafter on the Homefront were, as well, acts of subversion, of bitterness, and the ongoing struggle to make for a democratically-minded population in a Constitutional Republic with laws and values favored. Instead, Agencies grew<sup>82</sup> to undo the very precepts of liberty, of trade, of free association, as naturally as a Class of Lords will slither around under a Feudal Despot. Our Constitution is silent to their existence; yet we allowed Representatives and Presidents and High Courts to delegate powers to these Agencies they, themselves, do not have. Such has been the albatross weighing Our Great Experiment down for the last five score.

The ongoing struggle for Rights on the Homefront were acts of seeding Divide-and-Rule from the same Cousins and Foreign Adversaries, that those malignant forces in Washington D.C. made, a Faustian Bargain with, to our country's detriment and gutting. When one forgoes morality, or beliefs, or principles, then one can expect a Devil to blight one's path soon. The Devil eagerly encourages those most resentful of toil & labor, of slow progress, and of independence in isolation; while also, most obliging to the quickest schemes of avarice, of gluttony, and of power, for power's sake. This has befallen the United States since the last Great War.

Many have seen this encroaching doom for their entire lives.<sup>83</sup> But kept their tongues muted, in hopes, the Devil would soon be gone. But the Devil has demons aplenty to spare in a world more divorced than ever from a grounding in Nature, Philosophy, Sacrifice, and Frugality. The consumerism and idolatry of technology handed down from the Agencies through Kleptocratic Corporations that can prostitute their Man, or whore their Woman, for just a pittance of their ill-gotten wealth. Meantime, those Cousins, bankrupt financially and morally, and despising of anyone's Rights, have aligned with our Eastern enemies to finish out their long-held objective: to destroy, by a thousand cuts, the Great Experiment.

The question still remains: Will People Fight Again for Our Freedoms?

Not just in the United States. Not just our closest Cousin to the North, who have already shown their metal. Or all the Countries interfered with, by those Agencies, to the south of our borders. But rather, the entirety of the Human Race to throw off the shackles of their most offending Despots-at-large, and Their Lesser Demons, that carry out their Devilish Designs. Or as Our Document of Independence put so beautifully:

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness."<sup>184</sup>

We shall see, in due time, whether the Spirit of Liberty has one last battle to wage against the Force of Evil.

ADDENDUM: A Plea To U.S. Congress

Dear Senators:

The entirety of the United States depends on its ability to manage its resources and finances, while providing for the security of its people. Sadly, as the last eighteen months have shown, the ability to manage such essential pillars, during an international crisis (of which there is substantial evidence of a U.S. agency's complicity), has been a multi-faceted failure to mitigate, and identify properly, the risks to those essential pillars.

As a result, we now have an inordinate dilemma. Driven by policies pursuing invariably the same objective, the destruction of our country's individual liberties, livelihoods, and societal contentment, one must ask: When does this stop? When do the lives of ordinary people matter?

The U.S. monetary system is a fragile and complex thing. It rests on the "full faith and credit" of the ability of the United States (and its population) to service its obligations. We, as People, do not have the authority to merely create money at our whims. We must earn our faith-filled dollars to keep ourselves, our families, alive. We do not have the luxury of merely voting ourselves raises out of thin air. We have limits in our lives.

Our country once operated on such limits based in: moral character, personal sacrifice, frugality, and a healthy disdain of excesses. Some now ignore those needed principles, to a purposeful detriment, or a willful ignorance, of such issues regarding our country's now perilous finances.

They see the United States as a piggy bank to exploit for their own purposes through whatever scheme or design fits the moment of their robbery. They offer schemes of reparations to their constituencies. They brutally shame others to divide and conquer. They use greedy power grabs to push our country to its final demise, or, at the very least: submission to an ideology through psychological torture not seen in full bloom since the 1930s. That We, the People, once fought those ideologies – Communism & its kindred cousin, Nazism – is not lost on us that remember our history well.

The purveyors of these need resisting at all costs. Or the World will suffer again in ways incomprehensible to the very imaginations of the ones most easily exploited to bring such evils to pass on this Earth.

The U.S. citizen, the ones that build the roads, manage and fix electrical issues, appear in storms to provide needed food and water, pay amply too for the financial misdeeds of people from Wall Street to 1600 Pennsylvania. The wars from Vietnam through Iraq to Afghanistan, the financial casino ride of the 2000s, or the welfare policies in large cities that still pervade, but yet do next to nothing, for the very people, all Senators and Congress swore an oath to support, no matter their race, creed, or religion.

As a result of these repetitive assaults on sane policies, by the year 2000, the National Debt stood at $5.7 Trillion. By the time a new President took office, in 2009, it was $11.9 Trillion. Then as that President left office, in 2017, the total was $20.24 Trillion. The National Debt has eclipsed $28 Trillion as of March 2021. Congress has added over $1 Trillion per year to the National Debt for 20 straight years.

We, the People, can only pay so much. Our brow is not a limitless coffer of blood, sweat and tears. We too have limits to the amount of support to be given to any August body to do its job. Stop the madness of printing more and more money, “fiat” currency; or electronically creating checks for people to do, alas, nothing, as the 2020 Pandemic was exploitative of people who sweated, the most, for those that desired to do, the least. Thus, feeding the very monsters that will create more urban hellscape from paying their idle hands to do the bidding of our enemies.

Do not raise the Debt Ceiling.

We have enough currency. We have enough debt! Doing so will escalate, very rapidly, inflation that is readily apparent in our daily goods.

What we don't have is the liberty and the free ability to make our economy sing. We need less interference from governments and large Wall Street entities that pick winners and losers. We need rational policies that protect local companies from exploitative ideologies, like China, who fired up 38 Gigawatts of coal plants in 2020, while promising “climate goals” by 2060. And that is the least of China's sins to be considered at present.

Unleash the American spirit and allow it to prosper.

Debt is slavery. National debt creates permanent slavery, that our enemies gleefully desire for the United States.

Sincerely,

(The author sent to Senator Todd Young of Indiana in early August 2020. He responded with a form letter that did not address this issue. Meanwhile, the debt ceiling argument was mooted.

Note: The Federal Reserve needs to be abolished. The Debt Ceiling is a gimmick; but it is an issue to continue printing money, creating a debt-spiral that will inevitably crash of the United States.)
